

TRIBAL COUNCIL PHONE POLL POLICY

1. Title: "Tribal Council Phone Poll Policy".
2. Purpose: To establish a policy on how Tribal Council or Committees of Tribal Council use, conduct, and record phone poll results into Meeting Minutes.
3. Scope: This policy applies to Tribal Council and Tribal Council Committees.
4. Use of Phone Polls: A phone poll is authorized by the Tribal Constitution for use by Tribal Council. Recognizing that Tribal Council generally meets two (2) times a month, occasionally there may be matters that need to be addressed between meetings. Such matters may include time sensitivity matters, emergencies, deadlines, immediate actions, or actions so as not to create unnecessary delay. Tribal Council needs to have the flexibility to conduct official Tribal action in order to meet the needs of the Tribe and its Tribal Citizens.
5. “Emergency” means situations when immediate official action of the Tribal Council is necessary to preserve or promote essential interests of the Tribe.
6. Conducting Phone Polls:
 - A. Requests to conduct a Tribal Council phone polls must be approved by ~~the~~ either the Legislative Leader or the majority of Tribal Council.
 - B. Tribal Council Committee Phone Polls must be approved by either the Committee Chairperson or a majority vote of the remaining Committee members.

1. The Legislative Office Manager or the Legislative Office Administrative Assistance shall begin the phone poll process after receiving the authorization in writing from the majority of Tribal Council or Tribal Council Committee.
