

WAGANAKISING ODAWAK STATUTE 2006-013

Juvenile Justice

SECTION I PURPOSE

The Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, referred to in this Statute as “the Tribe”, has determined that:

- A. Juveniles are valuable Tribal resources, and that the welfare of juveniles is a vital concern of the Tribe;
- B. It is essential that Tribal resources, identity, and culture be preserved by providing for enhancement and strengthening of the family as the primary means of securing a vital Tribal community.
- C. The best interests of the Tribe and its juveniles are served when the juveniles of the Tribe receive the care and guidance necessary for their spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical development, all of which will prepare them to become contributing members of the Tribe;
- D. When concerns involving juveniles arise the Tribal Court, with advice from the Tribal Community Justice Coordinator and the Child Welfare Commission, is best able to resolve the concerns and provide juveniles with the care and guidance that is necessary for their well-being;
- E. Tribal Court, whenever practical, is preferable to state court for consideration of matters involving juveniles;
- F. When the Court must make a placement outside of the home, the best interests of the Tribe and its juveniles are served by providing for their care and placement in an environment which will ensure that juveniles receive the care and guidance necessary for their spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical development; and
- G. When concerns involving juveniles arise, the best interests of the community are served if the Tribal Court has jurisdiction over all persons in the family or household who is a part of the concern giving rise to the jurisdiction, or who may be part of the solution to the concerns.
