EXECUTIVE TEAM PLACED ON PAID LEAVE OF ABSENCE PENDING THE CERTIFICATION OF THE RECALL ELECTION RESULTS, FIRST FEMALE CHAIRPERSON REGINA GASCO-BENTLEY ASSUMES POSITION TEMPORARILY

By Annette VanDeCar, Communications Coordinator

A special recall election was held on November 17, 2014 for both Tribal Chairperson Fred Kiogima and Vice Chairperson Deb DeLeon.

According to the unofficial recall election results released immediately following the election on November 17, 2014, Kiogima was removed by a 379-325 vote (53.84% to 46.16%) and DeLeon was removed by a 384-315 vote (54.94% to 45.06%). According to the LTBB Constitution, elected officials shall be recalled upon a majority vote if at least 30% of the registered voters vote in the recall election. Of the 1,703 registered voters, 706 ballots were cast for 41.46%.

Immediately following the unofficial recall election results, Kiogima and DeLeon were placed on paid leave of absence pending the certification of the recall election results per WOS 2013-001. WOS 2013-001 states, "If the preliminary non-certified results show that the elected official subject to the recall was successful in the recalling of the official, then the official shall be placed on paid leave of absence until the Election Board certifies the election results." WOS 2013-001 further states,

"The official on paid leave of absence shall receive his or her compensations as set forth by Tribal Statute. The official on paid leave of absence shall have all the duties, authority and privileges associated with the official's position suspended. Such suspension shall include barring access to confidential information, tribal records, properties and equipment associated with the position."

In lieu of this, Legislative Leader Regina Gasco-Bentley assumed the Tribal Chairperson position after taking the oath of office from Chief Judge Allie Greenleaf Maldonado on November 18, 2014. In Article XIII Recall, Removal and Vacancies of the LTBB Constitution, it states, "In the event of a simultaneous vacancy in both the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson seats, the Legislative Leader shall serve as Chairperson until a special election can be conducted to fill the remaining terms. While acting as the Chairperson, the Legislative Leader will not be considered a Tribal Council member. After a Chairperson is elected and sworn in, the Legislative Leader will resume his/her position as a Tribal Council member for the remainder of his/her term.

Gasco-Bentley, a Boyne City, MI, resident, became the first female to serve as Tribal Chairperson and has served 11 years on Tribal Council. She assumed the Legislative Leader position on Tribal Council on September 8, 2013. She previously owned and operated Boyne Valley Printing Company in Boyne City, MI.

With a vacancy in the Legislative Leader position, Secretary Julie Shananaquet will chair the Tribal Council meeting. She previously served as the Legislative Leader from August 23, 2009 to September 1, 2011. Shananaquet was the first female Vice Chairperson, serving from September 1, 2011 to August 18, 2013. She first served on Tribal Council from August 23, 2009 to September 1, 2011 and began serving her current term on Tribal Council on August 18, 2013. She worked for the LTBB Tribal Government and the casino from "Female Chairperson" continued on page 25.

WOCTEP Granted Final Approval for Three New Certificate Programs

Submitted by the WOCTEP Program

The Waganakising Odawa Career and Technical Education Program (WOCTEP) recently received notice from our federal funders (the Native American Career and Technical Education Program a.k.a. NACTEP) that we may go ahead with three certificates offered in collaboration with North Central Michigan College (NCMC) in Petoskey, MI.

Long-time WOCTEP programs, Textiles and Entre-preneurship Essentials, have been phased out for 2015, making room for fresh new programs, which include The Business of Art, Medical Billing and Coding and Computer Numerically Controlled.

The Business of Art curriculum is geared toward local artisans who may want to make a living or side business out of artisan skills. This may not be a stereotypical Career and Technical Education program for certain regions; however, we are lucky to boast that Northern Michigan is host to a plethora and wide array of fine artists. Talent like this should not be overlooked!! We are hopeful that the Business of Art program will be the catapult that launches many artisan careers!!

Medical Billing and Coding (MBC) will also be available winter semester, which will provide necessary training to work for or within a medical clinic or hospital billing office setting. Careers in the medical field are abundant and will only increase as time goes on. Department of Labor data shows Michigan is one of the higher paying states in the Midwest for Medical Billing and Coding salaries.

Computer Numerically Controlled (CNC) is one of our most unique certificates offered this winter. The manufacturing industry has communicated there is a great need for CNC machinists/lathe operators throughout the Northern Michigan region. Training will take place in NC-MC's state of the art FAB LAB mobile training unit. NCMC is proud to be the only community college in Michigan to offer this mobile CNC training!!

We will continue to provide assistance for Nurse Aide, Medical Assisting, Phlebotomy, New Media, Graphic Arts in addition to CNC, Medical Billing and Coding and the Business of Art. WOCTEP has also been approved to assist with tuition and required course materials such as textbooks, training uniforms, storage devices and art supplies. WOCTEP will also provide mileage assistance (.56 per mile) to students who maintain NCMC's minimum cumulative grade requirement. Hourly stipend ($9.25 per contact hour of class) is available as well with stipend eligibility based on current federal poverty guidelines.

Please contact WOCTEP at 231-242-1489 for more information or e-mail kdominic@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov

VETERAN SPOTLIGHT

Honoring Our LTBB Tribal Citizen Veterans - Arlene Marie Naganashe

Every month, we will honor LTBB Tribal Citizen Veterans, past and present, who have served our country in the various branches of the military.

If you would like yourself, a family member or someone you know to appear in this series, please send us an e-mail at newsletter@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov with the name of the veteran(s), and please provide your contact information.

Arlene Marie Naganashe

Arlene Marie Naganashe was born March 15, 1939 to Irene Shomin and Peter "Sully" Petoskey. Due to the unexpected passing of her mother, she was raised by her grandparents. Because of this, she was raised among her elders, immersed in the Odawa language and culture.

Arlene served as a Seaman Apprentice in the U.S. Navy from June 1958 to January 1959. She said the U.S. was in a recession at that time and young people were having difficulty finding jobs, which led to many young people joining the military. She and her friend, Rita Masteau, joined the Navy together to support one another, however, they were separated when they were placed in different companies at boot camp in Bainbridge, MD. After boot camp, Arlene was sent to the Great Lakes Naval Base in Great Lakes, IL, and Rita was sent to California.

Arlene said serving in the military is a big part of her family's history because her father, Peter "Sully" Petoskey, served in the U.S. Navy during World War II; her aunt, JoAnn Petoskey, and her uncle, Sylvester Petoskey, both served in the U.S. Army during World War II; five uncles on her mother's side served during World War II; and her sister, Audrey Hagenbarth, served in the U.S. Air Force.

Arlene earned a Bachelor of Nursing Science from Ferris State University in 1990 at the age of 51 and a Master's degree in Nursing Administration from Northern Michigan University in 1999 at the age of 60. Her belief in lifelong learning was a teaching from her grandmother, and she has passed that teaching onto her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She developed the health care service currently in use by LTBB.

She worked for Northern Michigan Hospital in Petoskey, MI, from August 1986 to December 2011 and started as the SPRING Health Educator in December 2011. She worked as the SPRING Health Educator until she transferred to her current position, the Healthy Heart Case Manager in the Healthy Heart Program of the Health Department, in June 2014. She assists people with managing their diabetes. She is a 2014 Circle of Excellence recipient; the Circle of Excellence program provides the LTBB Governmental Team a chance to recognize seven team members for their hard work, dedication, teamwork, dependability and commitment to customer service.

Arlene is very active in the tribal and non-tribal communities, presenting at several Michigan universities, public schools and organizations; helping organize and sponsor pow wows; serving in the color guard at pow wows; participating in pow wows as a traditional dancer; participating in tribal events; and serving as the Chairperson of the Title VII Indian Education Program at Petoskey High School, as the Chairperson of the Petoskey Public Schools Head Start Committee, on the LTBB Housing Commission, on the first Indian Parent Committee for Petoskey Public Schools, as the Secretary for the Northern Michigan Ottawa Association (NMOA), as an officer for Unit One of NMOA, on the Inter-Tribal Council of Michigan's Maternal Child Health Advisory Committee, on the Michigan State Advisory Council on Mental Illness, on the State Child Death Review Board, on the Peer Review Board for State Mental Health block grants and on the Northern Michigan Hospital Internal Review Board for research projects. She was also the Indian Education Coordinator at Petoskey

High School.

Arlene and her husband, Jim Naganashe, have been married for 51 years and have seven children, 21 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. They reside in Petoskey, MI, and she has lived in the Northern Michigan area all of her life.

Each month, we will highlight LTBB Governmental Employees who serve our tribal community. Many of these employees are not often seen as they work behind the scenes. We hope to have an opportunity to introduce you to everyone who works to make the tribal government a success in serving the tribal citizens, both inside and outside of our local community.

Dawn Richards, Grant Compliance Officer

Odawa Trails: When did you start working for LTBB in your current position?

Dawn Richards: "I started in April 2013. I worked for the Keweenaw Bay Indian Community for the 15 previous years, first as an Accountant, and the last eight as Controller."

Odawa Trails: Please describe what your job entails. What are your major job duties?

Dawn Richards: "Primarily, I am responsible for compliance in relationship to grants. Grants come with all kinds of rules, stipulations and hoops to jump though in order to maintain the organizational level of integrity that qualifies LTBB to receive those awards. In addition to what I fondly refer to as "reporting season" (the preparation of quarterly federal financial reports), I also verify that program staff are meeting the various programmatic and narrative reporting deadlines imposed by the funding sources as well as following the unique work plans associated with each project. I also do research; lots of research. As the grant world is on the verge of implementing the largest overhaul to its grants management policies and procedures in 30 years, this is a really cool time to be involved in grant compliance! Clearly, my inner dork is showing, but part of what makes this field so rewarding, is the problem solving and directional changes needed to keep up with the constantly changing rules and regulations."

Odawa Trails: What do you enjoy about your job?

Dawn Richards: "Problem solving! I love that no day ever looks just like any other day. Each e-mail, question and obstacle is a unique puzzle. I enjoy working with program staff to find solutions to the obstacles they face with the restrictions of their funding agreements and ensuring that there is enough documentation available so that independent auditors don't get excited about documentation proving expenditures are reasonable, allowable and necessary to complete the objectives of the program. Geek speak aside, though, what I like the most is knowing that by keeping the paper trails clean, the LTBB's reputation as responsible stewards of federal funding is maintained, which in turn, provides opportunity for more grant based funding and more and continued services for the Citizens."

Odawa Trails: What is challenging about your job?

Dawn Richards: "Reporting Season! Getting all

Dawn Richards: "Reporting Season! Getting all of those reports completed and submitted by October 30, January 30, April 30 and July 30 is by far the most challenging aspect of what I do. Getting those reports together involves following up on financial obligations, making sure all the expenditures for the period have been identified (especially those in transition at the end of the reporting period), following up on projects in progress, ensuring that the indirect cost share has been calculated correctly, and pulling together that snapshot for the funding sources to be submitted at the various federal reporting sites, feels like a never ending battle. Of course, once the last report is submitted for the period, you can generally find me doing a little compliance happy dance!"

Odawa Trails: How far do you travel to get to work?

Dawn Richards: "Having relocated for this position from way up north in the U.P. (Upper Peninsula of Michigan), I am happy to report that I have finally found a house. I only need to travel about 15 miles to get to work. Although with winter upon us, it seems much farther."

Tammy Gasco, Education Department Administrative Assistant

Aanii Tribal Citizens. My name is Tammy Gasco. I am your Education Department Administrative Assistant.
I've been working for the Education Department since August 16, 2011; Education was previously the Gijigowi Bipskaabiimi Department. I made the switch to the Education Department from the Tribal Administration Receptionist position, which I worked for since March 2005.

Working here has taught me quite a few things and has also brought me back to my roots. I lived downstate for a few years after I graduated from high school, and eventually, I got homesick and missed my family.

Over time while working in Education, I've found that I like working on big projects with a close deadline. It may not be as big of a project, but my attention to detail tends to make it a bigger deal than what it usually is. So, I strive for perfection in my work. This may sound weird, but like a famous quote I heard suits me, "I love deadlines. I like the whooshing sound they make as they fly by." Just the fact that I finished a crucial project in a matter of days/hours, helps me feel like I've accomplished something, so I can say I did my job and can call it a day. I also like helping my fellow Tribal Members and LTBB Employees. I was once told by a former boss that "Admin Assistants are the backbone of the departments" so I keep that in mind when I'm at work. I always try to be a reliable source for my co-workers in Education. If they have a question, I try my best to take it upon myself to find their answers for them and to make it less stressful. I also handle and keep track of all the mail that we receive and send out of our office. I try to keep everything organized and up to date.

EPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING THE PURCHASE OF TAX-EXEMPT DIESEL FUEL

By Theresa Keshick, Department of Commerce Assis-

Aanii. In order to effectively monitor the usage of tax-exempt DIESEL fuel gallons, the Department of Commerce (DOC) has mandated the purchase of tax-exempt diesel fuel will only be available at the tribally-owned convenience store Biindigen, effective December 1, 2014.

This mandate will be lifted January 1, 2015. Thank you for your cooperation.

Tax Agreement Information

By Theresa Keshick, Department of Commerce Assis-

The Department of Commerce (DOC) would like to remind the tribal membership about a few items pertaining to the Tax Agreement.

First of all, I cannot express enough how important it is to keep your address updated.

The first step in becoming a Resident Tribal Member (RTM) is to officially change your address with the Enrollment Department. This must be done in writing and as soon as possible.

The DOC cannot and will not change the estimated beginning date (EBD) (which is always the first in any given month) of a member's tax exempt status (see example below).

It is YOUR responsibility to update your address on file with the Enrollment Department. This date will affect how many months you will be able to file the Annual Resident Tribal Member Sales Tax Credit (Tribal Form 4013). It is to your benefit to be able to file for the maximum number of months for this credit.

In addition, being an RTM will allow you to purchase large items such as vehicles, boats, motorcycles and off the road vehicles tax exempt.

There is a form that needs to be filled out called a "Request for TCE" (Tribal Certificate of Exemption), which is available in my office. Once this form is completely filled out, I will then issue the RTM the actual Tribal Certificate of Exemption (Tribal Form 3998).

If you plan on purchasing any of these items, please contact me FIRST, and I will be happy to get you the form via e-mail or fax. I am also able to fax the TCEs to the dealership you are doing business with.

Being an RTM will also allow you to be tax exempt on utility bills such as phone, cable, gas, propane, electricity, satellite and cellular service. If you have not filled out a Utility Provider Survey, please contact the DOC, and I will be happy to get one to you.

Also, another important thing to remember is if you do move into the Tax Agreement Area (TAA), your RTM status does NOT take effect until the first day of the following month.

Example: I move to Petoskey, MI, (inside the TAA) on September 5, 2010. My RTM (EBD) status begins October 1, 2010. All updates are sent to the State of Michigan as close to the end of the month as possible.

The LTBB Tax Agreement is viewable on the State of Michigan's website at:

http://tinyurl.com/ ltbbtaxagr

If you have any other questions pertaining to the Tax Agreement, I can reached at my office at 231-242-1584 or via e-mail at tkeshick@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov.

JANUARY IS INDIGENOUS POETRY MONTH AT THE LTBB CULTURAL LIBRARY

Here at the LTBB Cultural Library, we are all about celebrating arts and culture of indigenous people; not only from our tribe, but from all tribes. This month, we are celebrating a cultural art which may not always come to mind when thinking about cultural arts, indigenous poetry!

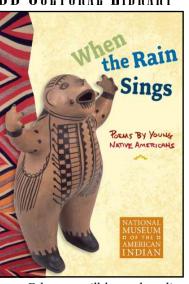

We have a nice selection of poetry books here at the library whether it is written by one person like the book Old Shirts & New Skins by Sherman Alexie or books with multiple authors like When the Rain Sings, Poems By Young Native Americans edited by the National Museum of the American Indian.

Some of the books in our collection contain both poems and short stories. We invite you to come on in and visit with us and explore the options you can

Since this month is indigenous poetry month, we would like to invite anyone who has written poetry to visit and share with us. Poems may be delivered by hand to the LTBB Cultural Library, located in the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs MI, by U.S. mail (LTBB Cultural Library, 7500 Odawa Circle, Harbor Springs, MI 49740) or by e-mail (dnightlinger@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov). Unless you request otherwise, you will find your poem published in the Odawa Trails in the coming months.

February will be oral traditions month, and we will highlight some of the great material we have here in the library waiting for you to explore.

We look forward to seeing you all soon.

LTBB TRIBAL YOUTH FEATURED ON A POSTER PROMOTING EDUCATION DIRECTOR'S PRESENTATION ON THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA AT DULUTH CAMPUS

Submitted by the Education Department

On October 23, 2014, the Education Director presented on the community-based science activities the department implemented for K-8 students funded by the Center of American Indian and Minority Health (CAIMH) at the University of Minnesota Duluth.

The presentation to the Community Advisory Board of the CAIMH was open to all university faculty and students and was promoted around campus using a poster which pictured one of our very own tribal citizens, Ms. Evelynn Gibson, age 10 (age nine at the time of the photo). Evelynn's smiling face and thumbs up served as the background image of the poster and became well-known all around the Duluth campus!

Recently, the Education Director sat down with Ms. Gibson and asked her to share her experiences this summer and her thoughts and feelings about becoming a well-known face around the University of Minnesota at Duluth campus. During that interview, she shared the following:

Education Director: What were your favorite parts about camp this summer?

Evelynn Gibson: "When we got to push each other in the water at the lake, when we got to paint, and when we got to go in the circle and tell each other our clan. My clan is Bear, the Mkwa."

Education Director: What was one thing that you learned at camp this summer?

Evelynn Gibson: "I learned how to say my clan and name at camp (in Anishinaabemowin)."

Education Director: Did you meet any new friends at camp?

Evelynn Gibson: "I met Corrina and Alexis and Vanessa and Sabrina and Corrina's brothers and a lot of other people, but I can't think of their names."

Education Director: What new things did you do at camp that you've never done before?

Evelynn Gibson: "I've never been to Raven's Hill. It's kinda weird 'cause when you come, there's this head with spider webs coming out, and it was weird. Also, when we went to that place where he showed us the place by Cross Village. I've never been there."

Education Director: What was your first thought or feeling when you found out that your picture was being used on the poster?

Evelynn Gibson: "I was like 'whaaaat?' Usually, there's always these people on posters, and I've never seen myself on a poster before, so I was pretty surprised and happy."

Education Director: What are you going to do

Kirby Rafters Thursday, October 23 1-3 pm

when you get a copy of the poster?

Evelynn Gibson: "I'm going to post it on my wall and show my mom."

Education Director: Is there anything else that you want to share about the poster or camp?

Evelynn Gibson: "Camp was really fun, and they show you stuff that you can do, like you can ask your mom and dad to get in a circle with your family to say your clan and name."

The funding from the Center of American Indian and Minority Health, which totaled $10,543, allowed the Education Department to implement the community-based science activities through a four-week summer program, Camp Mnobimaadziwin (the good life.) The camp sought to expose participants to topics and careers in health and science through health and wellness activities which used an indigenous land-based education framework. The framework wove academic and community-based cultural knowledge into an integrated curriculum. Camp Mnobimaadzwiwin started on June 24, 2014, and ended on July 11, 2014. Camp Mnobimaadziwin was held four days a week, Monday through Thursday, from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

CELEBRATING THE CULTURAL LEGACY OF THE MANDA-BEE-KEE DANCE TROUPE

By Wendy Congdon, Pre-Press Graphic Specialist

On November 14, 2014 at the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs, MI, the Archives and Records, Education – Cultural Services, the Elders Department and the Youth Services Department hosted a reunion feast for the Manda-bee-kee Dance Troupe. The dance troupe was formed in the mid-1950s and continued into the 1970s. It not only shared in performances at pow wows and events, but also educated the public about Odawa culture. It was a full house as troupe members, family and friends enjoyed stories of traveling and dancing in exhibitions throughout the country. Regalia and pictures were displayed. Simon Otto shared several cultural stories. Other speakers included David Dominic, Marvin Mulholland, Dave Shananaquet and Joe Mitchell. David Dominic led a demonstration of one of the troupe's traditional dances. The evening finished with the remaining troupe members receiving gifts from various LTBB Departments, the Homecoming Pow Wow Committee and tribal citizens. The gifts included Manda-bee-kee embroidered patches, picture frames made by tribal youth, a black ash basket made by Wasson Dillard and a Pendleton tote and blanket.

CHAMPIONS OF THE HEART: HEALTHY HEART SUCCESS STORIES

Submitted by Arlene Naganashe, Healthy Heart Case Manager

Shared with permission from a Healthy Heart Champi-

This summer, when I was recruiting individuals to walk with me, I approached this individual. The individual informed me the individual exercised by walking around the house. I encouraged the person to walk with me to the end of the driveway as walking outdoors increased the benefits of walking.

With encouragement from other family members, the individual agreed to try walking outdoors. The first trial required the use of the walker and a few rest stops. The pace was slow but steady, and the individual set the distance limit. As the individual's strength increased, the distance increased.

After a few weeks, the individual was able to progress to walking with a cane. Recently, the individual walked a quarter of a mile without the use of a cane or needing to stop for rest.

This individual now is up to walking 2 1/2 miles an hour on a treadmill. Way to Go Champion

HEALTHY HEART PROGRAM AVAILABLE FOR NATIVE COMMUNITY ADULTS WITH DIABETES

Dear tribal citizens,

Do you have diabetes or know an adult Native who has diabetes and lives in our community? This message is for you. The tribal Community Health Department has a grant, which assists Native community adults in managing their diabetes, so they can prevent or minimize the other health risks associated with diabetes by focusing on physical activity and healthy food choices.

Those in the program have an opportunity to earn incentives by meeting their goals. Incentives may include the following: Cross fit shoes, exercise garments, physical activity classes, gym memberships and farm/meat market vouchers. Mno Ode participants are also eligible to participate in our loan programs in which we currently offer bikes, George Foreman grills and Wii fitness systems. This is a participant directed program, so we will take your needs and suggestions for programming in the development of your wellness plan as well as any future programs we will offer.

Together, we can improve the health of our nation one person at a time. Positive changes will ripple throughout our community like a pebble tossed into a pond.

If you or someone you love has diabetes, please call the Mno Ode staff listed below.

Diane Bott, RN, at 231-242-1615, Arlene Naganashe, RN, at 231-242-1616 or Michele Keshick, RN, at 231-242-

IF YOU HAVE RECENTLY TURNED 18 AND UTILIZE SERVICES AT THE LTBB HEALTH DEPARTMENT, COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING STEPS TO ENSURE YOU REMAIN ELIGIBLE FOR SERVICES

Submitted by Valorie Glazier, Patient Benefits Specialist

When you turn 18, you are considered an adult. Congratulations on this milestone! As an adult, there are a few things you need to know about your medical record, and a few steps to take to ensure you remain eligible for services at the LTBB Health Department. 1. Come to Central Registration to fill out a new Patient Registration Packet. Please remember to bring your Picture ID with you and two pieces of mail with your current address. Central Registration Clerk Jennifer Yuhn or I (Patient Benefits Specialist Valorie Glazier) are willing to help you fill out and understand the paperwork. The packet includes documents such as address verifications, release of information, consent to treat and protected health information release (PHI), which is necessary to have in your file once you turn 18 and are an adult.

2. If you are not covered by private insurance (for example, Blue Cross Blue Shield or Priority Health), you must now apply for Medicaid on your own now that you are an adult. I am available to help you do the application online in my office during business hours or I can also help you over the phone if you do not live in the area. Keep in mind, it is always best to make an appointment to fill out the Medicaid application, which takes approximately 15 to 30 minutes depending on the circumstances, but walk-ins are always wel-

3. Do you want anyone else besides yourself to have access to information in your medical record?

If the answer is yes, then you must fill out a Protected Health Information (PHI) form at the Central Registration desk. Anyone listed on this form may access your health records at the LTBB Health Department. Health records may include the reason for your visit, the diagnosis, the treatment plans and medications you may be on as well as past appointments. You may revoke this access at any time.

If the answer is no, you don't have to do anything. If anyone calls the Health Department and wants to discuss anything regarding your health record, the staff will not provide any information. Examples: A patient's mom calls asking for a reference number for her son's appointment. Unless you have signed a PHI release, the staff will not issue a reference number or discuss your situation with your mom once you are an adult

If you have any other questions or concerns about what your responsibilities are now that you're an adult, please don't hesitate to call Valorie Glazier, LTBB Patient Benefits Specialist, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at 231-242-1748, by e-mail at vglazier@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov or stop by the Health Park in Petoskey, MI.

Did you know...

3 in 10 teen girls in the U.S. will get pregnant at least once before the age of 20?

During 2011, there were almost 11,000 teen births in Michigan between the ages of 15-19, and 112 births to girls under the age of 12! That means our kids are having kids too soon! Most teens must raise their child alone and with little income. These statistics are present despite the ½ credit requirement for sex education in the schools.

The most recent high school surveys have reported at least 47% of students have had sex.

Unfortunately, 1 in 3 adolescents in the U.S. will be the victim of physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner. This is higher than any other type of youth violence.

What can we do in our community to change these statistics?

Our tribal Health Department offers education and mentoring on healthy relationships, proud choices, self-esteem and the prevention of teen pregnancy, HIV and STD's. There is also a lesson on the importance of continuing education and applying for college.

PARENTS: We encourage you to discuss this opportunity with your kids and to consider an appointment. We have many ways in which they can learn this material either on an individual basis, with a few close friends or in small groups. The setting in which the learning takes place can be creative and combined with traditional teachings.

Enrollment has incentives!! Please inquire by calling tribal health: Trista Paone at 231-838-5761 or Cathy Gibson at 231-242-1601. Ask about the Tribal Personal Responsibility Education Program or TPREP!

EXECUTIVE BRANCH

From the Executive Office

Aanii from the Executive Branch offices of the tribal governmental center. As most LTBB Tribal Citizens are probably well aware, a recall campaign and election took place this fall. The ballots were counted on November 17, 2014, and a preliminary certification was issued by the Election Board later that evening. According to the preliminary certification, 706 tribal citizens voted in the recall election. The Tribal Chairman and the Vice Chair were recalled by a vote of 54% and 55% respectively.

Currently, Legislative Leader Regina Gasco-Bentley is serving as Tribal Chair, and she will continue to do so until either a challenge to the election is heard and decided by the Tribal Court or until a new Tribal Chair can be elected in a Special Election, which will be held within 90 days of the final certification of the recall election.

Our annual Children's Winter Solstice Party was held December 13, 2014 at the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs, MI. The event was complete with pizza, music provided by a DJ and lots of fun for our community. The kids were blessed this year to have 100% of the funding for the gifts provided by donations. Many thanks to Arlene Naganashe and Deleta Gasco Smith for their time, effort and dedication in organizing the gift drive this year.

2015 will soon be upon us, fresh with new beginnings and hopes for the coming years. We extend to you our best wishes for a happy and prosperous

LTBB Hosts the Michigan Tribal State Federal Judicial FORUM'S FIRST MAJOR MEETING SINCE 1992

By Maria Sargent

For the first time in more than 20 years, the Michigan Tribal State Federal Judicial Forum Naakonigewin (charter) met on October 27, 2014 at Odawa Hotel in Petoskey MI.

The meeting, funded by the Casey Family Programs and hosted by the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, was the first major gathering of the forum since 1992. Michigan Supreme Court Justice Michael F. Cavanagh, who along with Chief Judge Michael D. Petoskey served as original members of the forum, remarked members were excited to be reconvening after 22 years of dormancy.

The Michigan Tribal State Federal Judicial Forum was created to encourage ongoing dialogue between state, federal and tribal judiciaries. The forum is composed of a tribal judge from each of Michigan's 12 federally recognized tribes and 12 state court judges and welcomes participation by the federal bench and officials. The forum is currently led by Co-chairs LTBB Chief Judge Allie Greenleaf Maldonado and Judge Tim Connors.

Among the forum's principal goals is the pursuit of consensus on improving the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) and the Michigan Indian Family Preservation Act (MIFPA). The forum was responsible for the creation of "Enforcement of Tribal Judgments" in 1992, and most recently, the Michigan Indian Family Preservation Act.

The reconvening of the forum came with the desire to improve working relations and communication among jurisdictions and to produce better outcomes for Indian children and families. The spirit of ICWA and its formation dominated the dayand-a-half meeting in Petoskey. ICWA, passed in 1978 following Congress' review of the percentage of Indians adopted or in foster care, was intended to address the American Indian Police Review Commission's finding that Indians were 22.4 times more likely than non-Indians to be placed in foster care, and that the adoption rate of Indian children was eight times more likely than non-Indian children. Further still, the commission found 90% of Indian children were placed into non-Indian homes, and that the majority of Indian children were not being removed for physical abuse or neglect, but rather as a result of the Indian family's poverty.

By establishing minimum federal standards regulating states in the handling of the removal and placement of Indian children, ICWA is intended to protect the best interests of Indian children and their communities. ICWA also recognizes tribes should have the primary role in child welfare decisions and establishes transfer of procedure to tribal court.

At the October meeting, the forum had the opportunity to discuss their agendas, review and discuss ground rules, tour the LTBB Courtroom and make commitments to uphold the original forum's desire to create a powerful venue for improving working relationships amongst the three jurisdictions and to produce better outcomes for Indian children and their families.

The forum has a long list of ambitious goals, all of which strive to improve tribal, state and federal court relations.

2014 Career Enrichment Program Graduates Honored at Odawa Casino in Petoskey, MI

By Annette VanDeCar, Communications Coordinator

Odawa Casino Resort, owned and operated by the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, started its Career Enrichment Program (CEP) in January 2011.

The program has three tracks, two for all casino employees and one for LTBB Tribal Citizens. The track for LTBB Tribal Citizens was created to develop LTBB Tribal Citizens for executive positions at the casino.

On November 18, 2014, Odawa Casino Resort held its CEP Graduation Ceremony at Ovation Hall inside Odawa Casino Resort in Petoskey, MI. Both the 2014 Leadership Essentials graduating class and the 2014 Leadership Development graduating class were honored there.

The first track, Leadership Essentials, is a yearlong program, which combines Skillsoft courses completed online by participants, classroom instruction (CEP Leadership Essentials, a four-credit elective course through North Central Michigan College in Petoskey, MI) and a group project. The group project includes developing an action plan, a budget and a business plan. Each group presents its project to the casino's executive team to conclude the program. This year, groups were tasked with coming up with a way to attract the 30-something crowd to the casino.

For the first time, Odawa Casino Resort offered this program to a limited number of LTBB Governmental Employees. LTBB Housing Director John Givens and LTBB Communications Coordinator Annette VanDeCar were members of the 2014 Leadership Essentials graduating class, which also includes the following casino employees: Robin Joan Barber (Hostess/Cashier in Hospitality), Patti Boda (Table Games Pit Manager in Table Games), Amanda Furgeson-Foster (Banquet Server in Hospitality), Brad Hall (Table Games Supervisor in Table Games), Cory Handy (TDR Line Cook in Hospitality), Rose Kenwabikise (Front Desk Representative in Hospitality) and Benjamin Wemigwase (Table Games Supervisor in Table Games). Givens, VanDeCar and Wemigwase are LTBB Tribal Citizens.

Employees who complete the first track, Leadership Essentials, may continue for another year in the second track, Leadership Development. Leadership Development is also a year-long program, which combines Skillsoft courses completed online by participants, classroom instruction (CEP Leadership Development, a four-credit elective course through North Central Michigan College) and a group project. Similar to Leadership Essentials, the group project includes developing an action plan, a budget and a business plan, each group presents its project to the casino's executive team to conclude the program, and each group was tasked with coming up with a way to attract the 30-something crowd to the casino. The 2014 Leadership Development graduating class includes the following casino employees: Lila Bertram (Benefits Specialist in Human Resources), Nicholas Foltz (Table Games Pit Manager in Table Games), Staci Gray (Mainbank Cashier II in Finance), Dmitri Jacobs (Count/Drop Team Member in Finance), Mandy Oliver (HRIS Analyst in Human Resources), Kimberly Pearson (Guest Services Supervisor in Marketing), Jodi Skrobak (Administrative Assistant II in Human Resources) and Cheryl Stead (Guest Services Representative in Marketing). Bertram, Foltz and Stead are LTBB Tribal Citizens.

PARCELS AND COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION Energize PROGRESS OF THE TRADITIONAL TRIBAL BURIAL GROUNDS

By Nichole Biber, Traditional Tribal Burial Grounds Board member

Thanks to the support and assistance of many in our tribal community, almost 10 acres of land is now approved for use for the Traditional Tribal Burial Grounds (TTBG). This includes about three acres on the Murray Road parcel and about six acres out at Osbourne Road. This is a major step forward for the project and will enable our goal of offering a place for the natural burial of tribal citizens and their families beginning in 2015.

The Burial Grounds Board is working to make sure those who wish for a more peaceful, simple return to the earth will be able to bypass the concrete, steel and invasive procedures which characterize conventional burials and cemeteries. For a more detailed account of our plans, please visit our blog site: tribalburialinc.wordpress.com. There is also a Facebook page which offers updates and also links to the blog website. We ask either forum be used to MAKE COMMENTS and SUGGESTIONS about the rules and regulations as they now stand. The more community support and participation, the better.

As drafted, the rules and regulations do not stipulate or limit what spiritual practices or belief systems are conducted at the time of burial, but rather outline how the burial grounds themselves will remain a welcoming place for wildlife, plants and the natural cycles of regeneration which make up the Circle of Life. The "traditional" part of the project's name refers to the long-established relationship between the life-giving earth and the Anishinaabek who will one day return to and contribute to those sustaining soils.

We have had many discussions about the need for an Anishinaabemowin name which will best communicate the intentions and purposes of the burial grounds. Related to this need, Carla Osawamick of the LTBB Gijigowi Anishinaabemowin Language Department (GALD) suggested inviting Willard Trudeau and Marie Eshkibok-Trudeau as people knowledgeable in both the language and the teachings associated with death and burial. The Trudeaus traveled here from Wikwemikong Unceded Reserve of Manitoulin Island, Ontario, Canada. Marie's mother, Josephine Eshkibok, and the Wikwemikong Chief Duke Peltier, also visited, and we were honored to welcome them all on November 21 and 22, 2014.

Co-sponsored by the TTBG Board and the GALD, this event was very well received with approximately 60 Waganakising Odawak present at Saturday's teaching event held at the LTBB Community Center. As Netawn Kiogima stated in her welcoming remarks, the show of interest and support was a heart-gratifying scene of connection and solidarity which can only strengthen community ties. The day began with smudging, the sounds of the eagle bone whistle and ceremonials from community and visiting pipe carriers to assure all present were prepared in spirit to receive the teachings offered by the Trudeaus. As a Midewiwin taking care of a little boy water drum as well as other sacred bundles, Willie Trudeau is committed to sharing the teachings he has gained over many years of connecting with knowledgeable elders. Supported by Marie's knowledge of roles specific to women, Willie shared teachings about how to support the four day journey which the spirit must make at the time of the body's demise in order to return to the original spirit home which was left behind at the time of birth. There was a wealth of information shared, from explaining a fire must be lit immediately after death in order to calm the new spirit at a fearful and uncertain time, to the cedar bath Grandmother-aged women give the body, to the family's role in making black tobacco ties, to the diverse choices and difficulties encountered by the spirit on the return journey, to the memorial feasting which occurs a year after death. The teachings, offered in great detail and augmented by songs and petitions in Anishinaabemowin, affirmed to all present the beauty, wisdom and practicality of our traditional ways. It is beyond the scope of this article to recap or effectively summarize the approximately 10 hours of teachings the Trudeaus gave in their time here. What is certain is they were given in the spirit of generosity and renewal, intended to be taken to heart and utilized by those who choose to adhere to these death and burial traditions.

Many elements of community support would be required to offer a burial in alignment with these teachings. There is a definite need for a core group of people willing and able to help the families of the deceased, and the spirit of the departed, complete this journey. Firekeepers, women to gather cedar, feast helpers and so much more. Also for those who follow other ways of commemoration and mourning, there is a need for support. Anishinaabek have always cared for and esteemed our ancestors; an intentional, respectful burial keeps those ties strong. It is imperative to decide on personal burial plans, both to assure a gentler process for remaining family and to assure your wishes are made known.

For documentation's purposes, there was a visual recording made by the GALD, which they will work with during the course of the next few months in the effort to transcribe the Anishinaabemowin and enhance the resources available for language revitalization. Not intended for general public distribution, the record of the teachings can be accessed by interested Anishinaabek by contacting the

A special miigwech to Wasson Dillard for her work on the beautiful, large black ash basket the TTBG Board gave as thanks to the Trudeaus. The GALD also presented Willie, Marie, Josephine and Duke with gifts and gift bags of Anishinaabe language materials representative of Waganakising Odawak. The TTBG will continue working to assist those who wish for a simpler burial and return to the earth. Please attend our meetings, and visit our blog site to make comments or give suggestions at tribalburialinc.wordpress.com.

Odawa Casino Resort Raises More Than $23,000 for Local Breast Cancer Charities in October 2014

Editor's note: The following is an Odawa Casino Resort press release dated December 5, 2014.

Odawa Casino Resort (OCR), owned and operated by the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, announces $23,086.60 was raised during its "Play for Pink" fundraising promotion in the month of October 2014.

"We are so impressed by the level of support from the guests and team members for a cause that touches so many in our community," said Eric Mc-Lester, OCR General Manager. "Odawa Casino is proud to support local charities making a difference locally with breast cancer treatment and education."

"We are so grateful to Odawa Casino Resort customers and employees for making a difference locally in the fight against breast cancer. Early detection and education about breast health gives women the best chance for survival. This generous donation of $11,543.30 will support the Kathleen Jontz Breast Health Fund which pays for diagnostic tests, including mammograms and biopsies for men and women right here in Northern Michigan. This gift will truly save the lives of friends, family members and neighbors. On behalf of the McLaren Northern Michigan Foundation and the patients who will hear the words, 'Your mammogram is covered,' I sincerely thank you." said Moon Seagren, the Vice President and Chief Development Officer at McLaren Northern Michigan Foundation.

"The generosity of your patrons and staff has truly overwhelmed us! This wonderful donation will make such a difference for so many women. We applaud the resourcefulness and vision of your staff in the imaginative ways they raised money for this worthwhile cause and promise you that it will be put to good use immediately. The Circle of Strength, our cancer support group at Charlevoix Area Hospital, provides mammograms for women who can't afford them. They are so touched to receive this very generous check because they are fully aware of how many lives your donation will impact. Thank you for being such wonderful neighbors," said Cathy Fischl with Charlevoix Area Hospitals Marketing and Public Relations Department.

The Charlevoix Area Hospital Circle of Strength is a Cancer Resource Program which provides education and emotional support as well as financial assistance with mammograms, diagnostic tests and other treatment expenses for those in need. The program is run by a group of volunteers who help patients, families and friends through the challenging times after a cancer diagnosis.

The total donation amount was divided equally between the McLaren Northern Michigan Foundation and the Charlevoix Area Hospital Circle of Strength. Each charity received a check in the amount of $11,543.30 during a check presentation ceremony hosted in Sage, Odawa Casino's fine dining restaurant.

Owned and operated by the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, the $140 million Odawa Casino Resort in Petoskey, MI, opened in June 2007 and features 1,200 slot machines, 29 table games, a six table Poker Room, a live entertainment venue, several restaurants, gift stores, a nightclub and a 137-room hotel.

President Obama Commits to Native American

Editor's note: The following is a National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) press release dated December 4, 2014.

Yesterday (December 3, 2014), President Obama hosted more than 300 tribal government and youth leaders at the Sixth Annual White House Tribal Nations Conference. During sessions throughout the day, 10 Cabinet Secretaries and the Administration highlighted their deepening partnership with tribal nations, particularly on the critical matters of Native youth, tribal economic development and climate change. The President was introduced by Terry Rambler, Chairman of the San Carlos Apache Tribe, who declared President Obama "promised to meet with us annually, and he has kept his promise. During this time, we have accomplished many things for our communities."

President Obama focused his remarks on Native youth, building upon his summer 2014 visit to the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe where the President and First Lady visited with a group of young people. He shared how they stayed longer than planned as the young people opened up about the extraordinary challenges they faced.

The President then made a series of concrete commitments designed to create new avenues of opportunity for Native youth:

- The release of the White House Native Youth Report detailing the realities Native young people face and offering recommendations to address those is-
- The launch of the Cabinet Native Youth Listening Tour through which each Cabinet Secretary will pay visits to Indian country in 2015 to hear directly from Native youth.
- The establishment of the Generation Indigenous (Gen I) national initiative, which will seek to identify and remove obstacles standing in the way of Native Youth success.

- The creation of the Native Youth Community Projects, which will facilitate collaboration between tribes and schools to support students in a range of
- The convening of the First White House Tribal Youth Gathering in 2015.

The President stated, "The United States shares a sacred bond with our Native nations. We have a sacred responsibility to all our young people, including Native youth.

The President also pledged his continued commitment and that of his administration to promote economic growth in tribal communities, address the accelerating impacts of climate change and submit a budget to Congress which seeks smarter, stronger investments important for Indian country.

NCAI President Brian Cladoosby said, "President Obama has demonstrated his commitment to ensuring a stronger relationship for the next generation. He has committed himself and his administration to building a bright future for Native youth and a stronger tomorrow for tribal nations."

Tribal Leaders Meet with Vice President Biden Who Addresses Efforts to End Violence Against Women, Attorney General Holder Announces Initiative on Indian Child Welfare Act

Editor's note: The following is a National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) press release dated December 3, 2014.

Vice President Joe Biden joined more than 300 tribal leaders at the sixth annual White House Tribal Nations Conference today (December 3, 2014). At the opening of the conference, Vice President Biden delivered an impassioned speech about violence against women in Indian country saying, "The most horrific prison on earth is the four walls of an abused woman's home. For far too many Native American women, that is a daily reality."

The Vice President, who was the original author of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and has been its most steadfast supporter during the past 20 years, was introduced by Councilwoman Deborah Parker from the Tulalip Tribes, "Vice President Biden has led the movement to protect women against rape and domestic violence. Last year, he helped pass the much needed protection to help Native women from violence. Mr. Vice President, you are correct when you say no means no no more abuse." Referring to the provisions added to VAWA in 2013, which allow tribal governments to prosecute non-Indian domestic violence offenders in certain cases, the Vice President apologized it took so long to give tribal governments the tools to hold offenders accountable in their communities, saying, "As long as there is a single place where the abuse of power is excused as a question of jurisdiction or tolerated as a family affair, no one is truly safe, and we cannot define ourselves as a society that is civilized."

The Vice President delivered a call to action saying, "Tribal governments have an inherent right, as a matter of fact, they have an obligation, to protect their people. All people deserve to live free of fear." He urged all tribal governments to be prepared on March 7, 2015 when the law goes into effect to use their authority to aggressively prosecute domestic violence offenders. He stressed the need to change the culture which too often leaves victims asking what they did wrong and instead to focus on sending a strong message violence against women is always unacceptable. Vice President Biden also acknowledged we have much more to do to protect Native women from violence, including giving Alaska tribes the same authority and expanding the provision to cover sexual assault and other crimes. Biden called on Congress to appropriate the $25 million in grants authorized in VAWA 2013 to implement the new law.

Attorney General Eric Holder followed Vice President Biden, and strongly stated the Department of Justice's (DOJ's) commitment to improving law enforcement in Indian country and to institutionalizing that commitment, so it will continue. He announced he has implemented a Statement of Principles to guide the department's work with tribal nations into the future.

Attorney General Holder also announced a new initiative to promote compliance with the Indian Child Welfare Act in partnership with the Departments of Interior and Health and Human Services. Holder stated the initiative is "working to actively identify state-court cases where the United States can file briefs opposing the unnecessary and illegal removal of Indian children from their families and their tribal communities." Holder went on to explain DOJ will work with its partners and tribes to "to promote tribes' authority to make placement decisions affecting tribal children; to gather information about where the Indian Child Welfare Act is being systematically violated; and to take appropriate, targeted action to ensure that the next generation of great tribal leaders can grow up in homes that are not only safe and loving, but also suffused with the proud traditions of Indian cultures."

1993 to 2008 and served as a LTBB Commissioner/ Member of the Indian Child Welfare Commission, the Housing Commission, the Gaming Regulatory Commission and the Election Board.

According to the LTBB Constitution, the Election Board shall post non-certified election results within three business days in the tribal offices, and in the next issue of the tribal newsletter. The election shall be certified and the results posted by the Election Board 10 business days after the election if there are no unresolved challenges pending.

The Election Board could not certify the recall election results until Case No. C-204-1014 Fred Kiogima v LTBB Election Board was resolved in Tribal Court in mid-December 2014. As of press time, the recall election results had not yet been certified.

The case was filed on December 1, 2014, 10 business days after the special recall election took place on November 17, 2014.

According to the LTBB Constitution, any registered voter of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians may challenge for cause the results of any election by filing a written challenge with the Tribal Court within 10 days after the election. The Tribal Court shall act on a challenge to any election within 20 days of receiving the challenge in Tribal Court

Once the challenge is resolved in Tribal Court, the Election Board can certify the recall election results and schedule a special election within 90 days of the certification to elect a Chairperson and a Vice Chairperson to serve the remainder of Kiogima and DeLeon's four-year term ending on August 18, 2017.

On October 9, 2014, the Election Board validated the signatures and certified the recall petitions for Kiogima and DeLeon. In order to be certified, the recall petitions had to be signed by a number of registered voters equaling 20% of the registered voters who voted in the last general election. In this case, 161 signatures were required. The Election Board validated 177 signatures for Kiogima and 176 signatures for DeLeon and scheduled the special recall election for November 17, 2014. The Election Board mailed the ballots for the recall election on October 17, 2014.

On November 12, 2014, a motion hearing for Case No. C-204-1014 Fred Kiogima v LTBB Election Board was held. On November 14, 2014, the temporary Associate Judge released a ruling in the case. In it, the judge declined to grant an injunction to stop the special recall election from being held on November 17, 2014 and ruled the recall petitions were not exempt from public disclosure, therefore, allowing any tribal citizen to review the recall petitions per WOS 2010-009 Public Documents.

The Election Board had passed Motion 2014-001 Public Documents Exempt from Disclosure in which it stated it would not release the names of any individuals who had signed the recall petitions. The Election Board based this on Section VI Documents Exempt from Public Disclosure Subsection B3 of WOS 2010-009 Public Documents which states, "Records that rise significant privacy or confidentiality concerns for the tribe or a tribal citizen." It had released the number of signatures obtained on the recall petitions, the number of signatures verified on the recall petitions and the total number of signatures equaling 20% of the registered voters who voted in the last general election for the petition to WOS 2010-009 Public Documents states, "Tribal citizens have a right to review public documents unless exempted."

"It's safe and natural when breastfeeding to have baby in bed with you"

"I slept with all my other babies and they were fine"

Have you had these thoughts when putting an infant to sleep somewhere other than in a crib, on their back?

...... so did the parents of the 120 infants who died last year in Michigan sleeping in an adult bed, on a couch, with too many covers, face down, or in some other unsafe way. Any baby in an adult bed is at risk for suffocation from covers, pillows, other bedding, or being rolled on or smothered.

Accidents can happen to any family. The safest way for infants to sleep is alone, on their back, in a crib in their parent's room, without extra blankets or any toys in the crib.

Every baby counts, every sleep time counts. Make an informed choice about where your baby sleeps.

Leona "Leone" M. Honson, 79

Leona "Leone" M. Honson, 79, walked on December 6, 2014 at McLaren Northern Michigan in Petoskey, MI. Leone was born October 19, 1935 to Anna Kewaygoshkum and Henry George of Petoskey, MI. From school days at Haskell, to time spent with Foster Otto and Ann Smith, two well-known tailors, she spent summers working for Adelaide's in Harbor Springs, MI, then became the seamstress for The Clothes Post for many years until retiring. She devoted her life to her children throughout their lives, attending softball, football, basketball games galore, going two-tracking and mushroom hunting, picnics and berry picking. She was predeceased by her parents; sisters, Joanne George, Mabel Engle and Margaret Wright; brothers, Carl and James George; and husbands, Alvin (Vince) Keway and George Honson. Marie, MI; five stepchildren and their families; and many cousins, nieces and nephews. Of particular pride to her are her seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren with three more on their way.
