LTBB HAWKS BASKETBALL PROGRAM YEAR IN REVIEW 2008

munications Coordinator

The LTBB Hawks girls 14-18 basketball team enjoyed a near perfect 2008 season.

The team captured first place in the Michigan United Tribal Youth Basketball League (MUTYBL) regular season with a 5-1 record, won all three tournaments (the tournaments were held in Petoskey, MI, Peshawbestown, MI, and Mt. Pleasant, MI) it entered during the regular season and won the MUTYBL seasonending tournament.

Team members were Gaila Vertz, Carrie Eggleston, Cassandra Gibson, Trisha Heron, Sondra Bennett, Mercedes Schmidt, Marlene Powell, Jasmine McFall, Andrea Reese, Breanna Mulholland-Cepeda, Ashley Dominic, Izzy Olson, Amber Nowell, Yarrow Nowell and Brooke Whittaker. Regular season coaches were Larry Denemy and Mike Schmidt, and tournament coaches were J.D. Gibson and Joe Lucier.

"They played so well together and dominated throughout the season," Lucier said. "It was a nice balance because there was quickness at the guard position and the post players dominated inside scoring and rebounding.'

The boys 9-13 team also captured first place in the MUTYBL regular season, finishing with a 4-0 record. Jeannie Norris and Bernadece Kiogima were the coaches during the regular season, and Denemy was the coach during the tournaments. Both the girls 9-13 and the boys 14-18 teams finished second in the MU-TYBL regular season, finishing with 2-2 records. The boys 14-18 team also finished second at the tournament held in Petoskey.

The LTBB Hawks basketball program originally was run under the Health Department, but it is now run under the Youth Services Department. The teams practice at St. Francis Xavier School in Petoskey.

"It is great working with the kids because they all love basketball," said Lucier, the Youth Services Coordinator. "What I enjoy the most is seeing the younger kids score for the first time and progress. They shock them-

The program is looking for kids nine and up. There is no cost associated with joining. Similar to all the teams in the league, a player must show he or she is a descendent from an Indian tribe. There is no blood quantum required.

If you or someone you know are interested in participating in the LTBB Hawks basketball program, please contact Lucier at 231-242-1593 or at jlucier@ltbbodawa-

LTBB YEAR IN REVIEW 2008 AS SELECTED BY ODAWA TRAILS STAFF

By Annette VanDeCar, Communications Coordinator

Editor's note: This is the second section of the "LTBB Year in Review 2008 as Selected by Odawa Trails Staff." The first section of the article appeared in the January issue of Odawa Trails.

The following significant events are listed in no particular order.

Odawa Casino Resort Unable to Make Annual Service Payment to the Tribe

Because of the sluggish economy and because a $12.5 million bond interest payment was due on August 14, Odawa Casino Resort was unable to make its annual service payment of approximately $13 million to the tribe in October. The approximately $13 million is used to run all of the tribe's programs, per capita distribution and gaming regulatory. The remaining funds come from grants, and that accounts for approximately $7 million to $9 million a year. Bond interest payments on the $123 million loan to build the casino are due every six

In order to continue operating the tribal government and to avoid layoffs on the governmental side in 2008, Tribal Council approved at its October 5 meeting to borrow an amount not to exceed $4.5 million from the tribal investment fund for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2008. The tribal investment fund was approximately $15 to $16 million before the money was borrowed from it.

LTBB Receives Unique Gift from American Red Cross

The Northern Lower Michigan American Red Cross presented LTBB with the gift of a bear painted by LTBB Tribal Citizen Tom Teuthorn on February 21. The chapter, which serves Antrim, Charlevoix, Cheboyshow its appreciation for the assistance LTBB provides the American Red Cross.

Restoration and Rededication of Historic Church in Petoskey, MI

Through the combined efforts of the local Native and non-Native communities, the St. Francis Solanus Indian Mission Church and burial ground in Petoskey was completed in 2008 after three years of hard work.

The mission church and burial ground, 149 years old, was rededicated on July 14.

LTBB Tribal Community Citizens Featured in Parenting Section

A parenting section inserted into the February 29, 2008 weekender edition of the Petoskey News-Review featured several LTBB Tribal Community Citizens. As part of the Parenting Awareness Month Community Scrapbook, five photographs with LTBB Tribal Community Citizens

The freedom to be a part of a people, who with integrity and pride, still have and speak our language. The freedom in common with all other Odawak the customs, culture and spirituality of our ancestors. The freedom we have today we will bring to the future through unity, education, justice, communication and planning. We will reach out to the next seven generations by holding to cultural values of Wisdom, Love, Respect, Bravery, Honesty, Humility and Truth. We will utilize our tribal assets to provide the necessary tools to become successful, hard-working community members who proudly represent our culture. Program ELDERS PROGRAM REPORT

By Marie "Tootsie" Miller, Elders Program Coordinator

Aanii, Kikaajik!

Welcome to winter! It has been a cold and snowy winter so far!

In December, we had a wonderful Elders Christmas Luncheon hosted by Odawa Casino Resort. It was held at Odawa Hotel in Petoskey, MI. It was a delicious meal. We also had our "Evening of Fun" dance for Christmas at the Community Center at the Wah-Wahs-Noo Da Ke Elder Housing Development north of Harbor Springs, MI. It was a potluck with great music provided by the Countryside band. A surprise visit from Santa was well-received.

Currently, we are waiting to see how our budget will be developed as far as any trips or other activities we normally pursue. The main change is my Assistant, Tina Peterson, has accepted a job in Wisconsin to pursue another career and to be with her husband. We wish her well in her new adventure. Kathy McGraw, formerly an Accounting Assistant, is now working as Elders Program Assistant.

Many thanks to Virgina Lewis who worked diligently all year long as she organized groups to make floral crowns for the grave sites. There will be changes to this, as so many families have been making their own, and the LTBB Elders Association will no longer be supervising the making of the flower crowns.

Burial request program regulations have been delegated to the Human Services Department. Human Services staff will verify any items submitted are allowable under the Burial Program Statute WOS 2006-017 before processing burial funds request. If you have any questions concerning this, please call Kristi Houghton at 231-242-1632.

I trust this newsletter finds you well and enjoying winter sports.

If you have any questions or comments, please don't hesitate to call us at 231-242-1423 or 231-242-1422.

Translation

There are lots of things here on earth that are loved. It is called different things. It is not only human beings that have love. The animals also have love. Also, everything that grows here on earth is able to feel what is called love.

Some people grow flowers. If they are well taken care of, the flowers know that they are loved. That is why the flowers sometimes grow so well and so beautiful, because they know they are loved.

Some families always spend time with their children when raising them. The children are not alone. These children know they are loved. When they become adults, then, it is seen how well they were raised. They lead good lives.

If someone takes really good care of their car, that car knows it's loved, then, it will drive good. This car will not break down because it was well taken care of.

Sometimes, a person has a soft heart. The animals know that this person has lots of love. They do not run away when they see this softhearted person.

If we take good care of Mother Earth, she will know we love her. To-day, there is crazy weather outside, the sun is overly hot, it rains so hard that it causes floods, it's snowing where it didn't snow before, earth-quakes, hurricanes; there are many more things. People have to change how they take care of Mother Earth, otherwise, there will be nobody here much longer on earth. We have to show Mother Earth that we love her.

Health Department

Important Facts You Should Know About Indian Health Service Contract Health Service

I.H.S. - CHS coverage is not automatic. You must be registered with CHS. Should you have an emergency situation requiring you to obtain care at a non-I.H.S. facility such as urgent care or the emergency room, you must notify the CHS office at 231-242-1600 within 72 hours of that visit. If you fail to do so, you will be held responsible for the bill.

Eligibility Criteria:

- You must reside in the Contract Health Service Delivery Area (CHSDA).
- Be an enrolled member or descendent of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians or be able to prove social or economic ties to the community.
- A Native American claiming eligibility for CHS has the responsibility to furnish the tribal program with documentation to substantiate the claim.
- You must have an active and complete file with Contract Health before a reference number can be given.

Remember!!!!

Indian Health Service Contract Health is not an entitlement program - not everyone is eligible. Know your status before obtaining services.

Referrals:

Physicians write referrals when patients need medical care that is not available in the Tribal Clinic. A referral is not an implication the care will be paid by CHS. A patient must meet eligibility criteria, medical priorities and use all alternate resources available.

If a referral is denied for CHS payment, the patient may elect to obtain medical services at his or her own expense. In most cases, an approved referral is limited to one medical appointment. Please call Contract Health Services at 231-242-1600 prior to any follow-up appointments for approval to make sure your coverage is still in effect.

Alternate Resources:

Contract Health Service is the payer of last resort. When a patient has Medicare, Medicaid, Veterans Assistance, Workman's compensation, private insurance or any other coverage, it is considered the primary carrier.

Priority system:

Medical referrals are approved for payment by a priority system.

The system has highest priority to approve conditions related to life saving or potential death threatening situations, then we approve by severity of condition.

The amount of funding we receive for CHS services is limited. When we run out of money toward the end of the year, then we have to be very strict on referral approvals and may only have the funds to pay for emergency conditions.

College Goal Sunday Helps Students Get Much Needed Cash for College

Submitted by the Education Department

More than 550 volunteers will help college-bound Michigan students and their families complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid or FAFSA during statewide College Goal Sunday events on Sunday, February 8, 2009. For the second year in a row, LTBB will serve as a Michigan College Goal Sunday location.

College Goal Sunday is a collaborative effort among the Michigan Guaranty Agency, the Michigan Student Financial Aid Association and EduGuide. The program is designed to increase the number of Michigan students who continue education beyond high school and earn post-secondary degrees. The FAFSA is required of any student seeking financial aid including grants, loans and many scholarships.

"Parents should not underestimate the amount of financial aid that is available," said Diane Sprague, Director of the Michigan Guaranty Agency. "As lead sponsor of Michigan College Goal Sunday, MGA wants to ensure that students have the opportunity to submit their FAFSA by the March 1 priority date so they are eligible for both state and federal financial aid programs."

Statistics show students who complete and submit FAFSA forms are more likely to go on to college.

On College Goal Sunday, financial aid experts will be available to guide students through each step of completing and filing the FAFSA. Students under 23 years of age are encouraged to attend with a parent or guardian. Parents and students should bring their families' completed 2007 IRS 1040 tax return (if possible) or their W-2 and 1099 forms.

Twenty-nine sites across Michigan will host College Goal Sunday on February 8, 2009.

For additional information and a complete list of sites, go to www.micollegegoal.org.

More than $6,000 in gifts and prizes will be handed out during College Goal Sunday events, including scholarships, a Dell laptop computer and Barnes & Noble gift cards.

Additional support for College Goal Sunday was provided by the C.S. Mott Foundation, the Lumina Foundation for Education and the DTE Energy Foundation.

For more information on the Michigan College Goal Sunday event hosted by LTBB, please contact the Education Department at 231-242-

Participate in National Wear Red Day on Friday, February 6 Wear Red to Support Women and Heart Disease Awareness

Friday, February 6, 2009, is National Wear Red Day—a day when Americans nationwide will take women's health to heart by wearing red to show their support for women's heart disease awareness. Although significant progress has been made in increasing awareness among women from 34% in 2000 to 57% in 2006 most women fail to make the connection between risk factors and their personal risk of developing heart dis-

You may already be aware Michigan residents have higher rates of heart disease than most of the nation, and Native American statistics are higher than those of the general population. Just being Native American puts one in a higher risk category for heart disease.

men across the country will wear red to unite in the national movement to give women a personal and urgent wake-up call about their risk of heart disease. Everyone can participate by showing off a favorite red dress, shirt, or tie or by wearing the Red Dress Pin (available at www.hearttruth.gov).

Join this national effort by wearing red on February 6, and encourage your family, friends, and co-workers to do the same.

By participating in National Wear Red Day, LTBB is joining The Heart Truth. The Heart Truth is a national awareness campaign to alert women about their risk for heart disease and to motivate them to take steps to lower their risk. The centerpiece of the campaign is the Red Dress—the national symbol for women and heart disease awarenual event held on the first Friday in ness. What's a Red Dress got to do February. On this day, women and with it? A simple Red Dress works as a visual red alert to get the message heard loud and clear: "Heart Disease Doesn't Care What You Wear-It's the #1 Killer of Women." Sponsored by the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute, part of the National Institutes of Health, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the campaign is reaching women with important heart health messages in community settings through a diverse network of national and grassroots partner organizations.

Please join in and help spread the word about women and heart disease. For ideas and tools to help you participate in National Wear Red Day or to order a free Red Dress Pin, visit www.hearttruth.gov.

How to Become a Resident Tribal Member (RTM)

By Theresa Keshick, Department of Commerce Assistant

The first step in becoming a Resident Tribal Member (RTM) is officially changing your address with the Enrollment Department. All RTMs are verified through Enrollment. Enrollment in turn sends the Department of Commerce (DOC) notification of your status. Please note on your Address Verification Form (AVF) the township you reside in. This alerts the Enrollment Department for RTM status. When you change your address with the Michigan Secretary of State's office, you will be asked if you would like to register to vote; by doing so, it will note the township you reside in. Otherwise, ask one of the Enrollment Department staff when filling out your AVF.

Your RTM status does not become effective until the first day of the following month in which you

Example: I changed my address with the Enrollment Department on May 3. My RTM status did not go into effect until June 1.

It is VERY important you notify Enrollment immediately when you move into the Tax Agreement Area (TAA).

It is your responsibility to notify Enrollment of any changes in address or name; the DOC cannot backtrack or backdate documents in order to qualify for RTM status.

Being an RTM exempts you from paying state sales tax on large tangible items such as vehicles, boats, snowmobiles and off the road vehicles. It also applies to affixation to your primary place of residence. There is a form that needs to be filled out to request a Tribal Certificate of Exemption (TCE). The request for this form (Request for TCE) can be found on the LTBB website www.ltbbodawa-nsn.gov or by calling the DOC at 231-242-1584. Tribal Form 3998, which is the actual Tribal Certificate of Exemption, may only be issued by the DOC with certain authorized signers. The signing order is as follows: DOC Assistant Theresa Keshick, Tribal Administrator Albert Colby, Jr., Vice Chairman Bill Denemy, Sr. and Chairman Frank Ettawageshik (in the absence of DOC).

Please note: All RTM updates are sent to the State of Michigan on a monthly basis as close to the end of the month as possible. If you plan to purchase a vehicle or do any remodeling to your residence, please wait until after your RTM status is effective (after the first day of the following month in which you moved); otherwise, the State of Michigan will deny your claim for a refund.

Being an RTM also exempts you from sales/use tax on utilities such as phone, Internet, satellite, gas, electric, propane and cellular service. Please fill out the Residency Form for Tax Agreement and return it to the address noted on the bottom of the Tired of all the wintery, cold weather?

Stay inside, drink a hot beverage and enjoy a new arrival from the LTBB Cultural Library, located in the Education Department at the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs, MI.

LTBB Tribal Citizens can check out any of the following new arrivals for three weeks.

"Dark Wind"

This movie, released in 2003, is based on the Tony Hillerman novel of the same name.

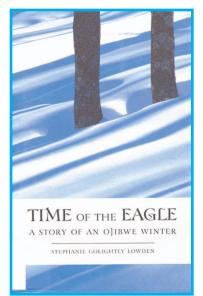

The following is a synopsis of the film that appears on the Fandango website: "Noted documentary filmmaker Errol Morris made his dramatic feature debut with this story about murder and other dirty dealings on an American Indian reservation. Recent college graduate Jim Chee (Lou Diamond Phillips) has just taken a job with the Navajo Reservation Police in Arizona, where he helps keep the peace with his superior Joe Leaphorn (Fred Ward) on land earmarked for joint use by the Navajo and Hopi tribes. Cowboy Dashee (Gary Farmer), a sheriff from the Hopi law enforcement group, discovers a decaying and unidentified body in the desert, an event he thinks may be linked to a recent robbery at the reservation's trading post. The shop's Hopi manager, Jake West (John Karlen), is convinced that Joe Musket, a Navajo drug dealer and ne'er-dowell, is responsible, and as Chee and Leaphorn investigate the murder, the robbery, and a mysterious plane crash, they find themselves drawn into a web of corruption, prejudice, and deceit."

Time of the Eagle

This novel, written by Stephanie Golightly Lowden and published in 2006, is intended for children ages 9-12.

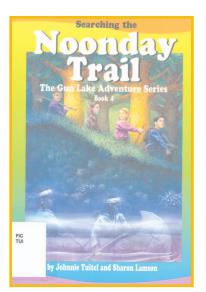

The following is a product description of the novel that appears on the Amazon.com website: "When smallpox strikes her family's lodge, 13year-old Ojibwe girl Autumn Dawn flees into the forest with her little brother. Together, the two youngsters must draw on survival skills and learn to tell friend from foe as they travel in search of a safe haven. As winter's grip descends on the north woods, what will the two do for food? Can they build a fire? Find shelter? The winter trek of Autumn Dawn and Coyote Boy offers a tale of courage and resourcefulness near the shores of Lake Superior, the realm of soaring eagles and home of the Anishinaabe (Ojibwe/Chippewa). Set in the fur trade era of the 1700s, this is the story of one girl's heroism and strong spirit."

Searching the Noonday Trail

This novel, written by Johnnie Tuitel and published in 2000, is the fourth in the Gun Lake Adventure series. It is intended for children ages 9-12.

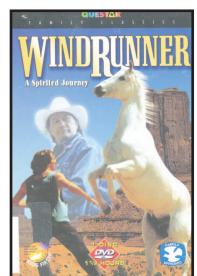

The following is a synopsis of the novel that appears on the Cedar Tree Publishing website: "The first day at a new school proves to be challenging for Johnnie Jacobson. But he wonders if it will be as adventuresome as the summer was? A secret football play and a field trip to where Chief Noonday and the Ottawa tribe used to live put the Gun Lake kids hot on the trail of another exciting adventure."

"Windrunner: A Spirited Journey"

This film, starring Russell Means, was released in 2003.

The following product description of the movie appears on the Amazon.com website: "Family approved by the Dove and Kids First Association, this film follows a high school boy who reluctantly moves with his mother to a small town in southern Utah. There he visits his father in prison, meets a girl, makes the football team and befriends a mysterious Native American Indian. Wa Tho Huck reveals himself as the earthly spirit of the legendary Carisle Indian College athlete Jim Thorpe, who delivers the message that one can overcome any obstacle to fulfill life's dreams in this exciting action-adventure film."

When Beaver Was Very Great: Stories to Live

This novel, published in 1995, was written by Anne M. Dunn, an Ojibwe author and storyteller who lives in Cass Lake, MN.

The following is a brief description of the novel from its publisher's notes: "Seventy-five short, purposeful traditional tales and original fables by a Native American (Ojibwe) storyteller. Each gives gentle guidance on issues of social justice, living in harmony with nature, and personal growth."

Native Athletes in Action

This novel, written by Vincent Schilling and published in 2007, is part of the Native Trailblazers series. It is recommended for young adults (grades four through eight).

The following is a Booklist editorial review of the novel that appears on the Amazon.com website: "Along with well-known figures such as Jim Thorpe and National Hockey League hit man Jordin Tootoo, Schilling introduces Olympic wheelchair racer Cheryl Becerra-Madsen, speed skier Ross Anderson, ice dancer Naomi Lang and eight other less familiar Native American athletes of the present and recent past. Most of the portraits are based on personal interviews; all include tribal affiliations, career notes, brief sidebars and small, black and white action photos."

Spirited Encounters: American Indians Protest Museum Policies and Practices

This novel, written by Karen Coody Cooper and published in 2007, examines the process of repatriation.

The following is a product description of the novel that appears on the Amazon.com website: "During the 20th century, American Indians across North America organized protests against traditional museum treatment of Native materials and the Native community. In response, museums began to change their methods. Spirited Encounters provides a foundation for understanding museums, examines how museums collect Native materials, and explores protest as a fully American process of addressing grievances. Now that museums and American Indians are working together in the processes of repatriation, this book can help each side understand the other fully."

Executive Branch

From the Desk of the Tribal Chairman Frank Ettawageshik

Ambassadorial Activities

Breakfast for Champions: The Petoskey Chamber of Commerce annual awards event was held at Ovation Hall at Odawa Casino Resort in Petoskey, MI, on December 2. This was the second time we hosted this event. This year, everything went well as we didn't have the sound system issues that occurred last year. We received praise for the food, the staff and the facility. The retiring Chairman of the Board for the chamber is Marty VanDeCar who will remain on the board as the past chair for another year.

National Congress of American Indians (NCAI): We had the monthly NCAI conference call of the Executive Board on December 2 in the afternoon. I serve on the board as the Alternate Vice President for the Midwest Area. We talked about the agenda for the Obama transition team and who is being considered for Secretary of the Interior. We also planned the pre-meeting for the tribal leaders meeting with the Obama Transition Team on December 9.

Harbor Springs Kiwanis: We hosted a monthly meeting of the Kiwanis at the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs, MI, on December 3. The Vice Chairman (Bill Denemy, Sr.) and I attended and welcomed the attendees. This event provides great networking opportunities and gives us a chance to answer questions for business owners and community members from Harbor Springs.

Obama Transition Team Meeting in Washington D.C.: I flew to Washington, D.C. early on the morning of December 9. We met first at the NCAI offices to prepare for the meeting at the National Museum of the American Indian after lunch. There were 26 leaders from across Indian country invited to attend the meeting. Michelle Stanley from the Saginaw Chippewa Tribal Council and I represented the Midwest Alliance of Sovereign Tribes (MAST) Executive Board at the meeting. I presented the three main points the board had decided on: 1. to restructure the Indian budgeting process at the Office of Management and Budget; 2. recommitment to a true consultation process across the federal government; and 3. more funding for Indian Health Care (IHS) programs. Stanley also spoke about labor issues. We just had time to finish our presentation and had to get a cab to go to the airport to catch the flight home. It was a long but very productive day. We are hopeful our presentations will have an impact on the Obama Native agenda.

Middle Village Park Management Committee: The meeting for December 9 was postponed until January as we didn't have each of the townships' approval of next year's budget yet. It has since come in, and we met in January.

Great Lakes Regional Collaboration (GLRC): The annual meeting of the GLRC was held by conference call on December 10. I serve as the tribal representative on the Executive Committee, and I gave a 10-minute overview of Indian country accomplishments and issues from this past year. Each of the other Executive Committee members also gave a short report. We then took comments and discussion from the public.

Chippewa Ottawa Resource Authority (CORA): The December CORA meeting was held on December 11 at Grand Traverse Resort near Traverse City, MI. We had a holiday luncheon at which the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Director Steve Johnson addressed the CORA members, and he took questions for approximately 30 minutes. The EPA Deputy Director Ben Grumbles and the EPA Director of Native American Programs Carol Jorgensen also attended.

We also discussed the Cross Village Township Supervisor's request for assistance with the design and construction of a new boat ramp to replace the worn out one now being used. CORA has set aside some funds for this purpose, but the funds haven't been previously requested.

Michigan Travel Commission: The Henry Ford in Dearborn, MI, hosted the commission meeting on December 12. We discussed the new winter Pure Michigan promotion and reviewed the new TV and radio spots. This is the first winter campaign in several years.

Tribal State Forum: This conference call was on December 15. We provided a draft Climate Change Accord for discussion and have agreed we will work on this for the Annual

Tribal Chairman Frank Ettawageshik

Summit meeting with the governor (Jennifer Granholm) in the spring. We proposed this Climate Change Accord as an outcome of my work on the Michigan Climate Action Council which is preparing a report for the governor which is due in February 2009

United Tribes of Michigan (UTM): We held an Executive Board conference call on December 16 to discuss a tuition waiver issue, bulk purchasing proposal, our upcoming meeting in February and insurance policies for UTM.

Northern Lakes Economic Alliance (NLEA): On December 18, NLEA to discuss their thoughts on how LTBB could become a member of the alliance. We indicated we were not in a position at this time to make a financial commitment, but we came up with several possible joint activities to work on while we were considering their proposal. We suggested working to implement the addendum to the Tribal State Economic Accord in which we agreed to establish an Economic Development Fellows program. We will work further on how this might be brought about.

Stafford's Annual Appreciation Event: The Perry Hotel was the site for this annual event on December 22 from 4 -7 p.m. I attended and spent the evening networking with community leaders from the Harbor Springs and Petoskey area. They prepared several food stations for the attendees. I spoke with the owner of the Holiday Inn Express in Petoskey who informed me he is working on the Petoskey Pointe Project and hopes to bring a Holiday Inn franchise to the project.

Native Vote: Su Lantz submitted a final report on 2008 Native Vote. We had participation by all of the 12 federally recognized tribes in Michigan.

Implementation of Statutes and Resolutions

Signing: All of the resolutions and statutes passed by Tribal Council in December have been signed.

Notary Public Statute: We have been working with Insurance Agent Velissa Naganashe who has found a company agreeing to provide the Surety Bonds for our notaries. We were in the final steps of implementing the bonding applications and expected to have this in place by the time of the January 11 meeting.

Oversight of Commissions and Programs

2010 Executive Budget: On December 4 and 5, the Chief Financial Officer (Valerie Tweedie), the Tribal Administrator (Albert Colby, Jr.), the Vice Chairman and I conducted 2010 budget hearings for Executive Department Directors. We discussed their thoughts on the draft 2010 budget we have been working on through the fall. After considering the results of these hearings, we prepared and submitted our 2010 budget to the Tribal Council Office.

Staff Holiday Luncheons: These were held on December 17 at the LTBB Governmental Center and December 19 at the Health Park in Petoskey. These meals were potluck with Denemy, Sr., Colby, Jr. and I providing ham for the meals.

Enterprise Oversight

Odawa Enterprise Management (OEM): I have been meeting and having phone conferences with OEM Director Chuck Schofield regarding progress at Bell's Fishery in Mackinaw City, MI, and Biindigen in Petoskey. In short, we are in better shape than previous years, but still struggling at Bell's; Biindigen is coming along better. We ended tax free cigarette sales early in December 2008 as we had sold our quota for the year. Sales resumed in 2009.

Waganakising Odawa Development, Inc.: We had our monthly meeting on December 17. We still are working on projects for Nimkee Technologies, but so far, there has been no change in our financial report. With the exception of the past two holiday weeks, we continue to have a weekly conference call for the Nimkee board.

Odawa Casino Resort: We continue to monitor the economy and its effects on our business at the casino. On December 10, I attended the awards luncheon for Odawa Casino Resort team members at Odawa Hotel in Petoskey. The casino workgroup continues to meet to close out the construction project. Many of the closeout items are being completed, so we are meeting once monthly now instead of every two weeks.

We hope you enjoy the Kwis & Tho Comics

You may have noticed the Kwis & Tiio comic strips printed here over the last year. The comic strips were made by the St. Regis Mohawk Tribe located in New York. While the St.

Regis Mohawk Tribe is different than the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, we can all appreciate the Native humor and environmental lessons in these comics.

Legislative Corner

Tribal Council, as the Legislative Branch, appropriates funds through a constitutionally mandated budget formulation process for the three branches of government (Executive, Judicial and Legislative), the Prosecutor's Office and the Election Board.

Currently, Tribal Council's Appropriation and Finance Committee is reviewing budgets for 2010.

As reported in the December at ways to diversify our economic development. As you may recall, we had a feasibility study completed for the "old Victories Casino site" in Petoskey. We are currently assessing the next steps to implement the results of the study.

On the Legislative front, Tribal Council has several statutes that have been posted for your comments and suggestions, including the Sex Offender Registry Statute, Sex Offenses 2008 Odawa Trails article, Tribal Council is closely watching the revenues of Odawa Casino Resort in Petoskey, MI, to see the impact for the fiscal year 2009 budget.

A plan has been submitted by the resort's General Manager to make the annual service payments to the tribal government. These payments from the resort allow the tribal government to provide services and programs for our tribal citizens.

We will not know until mid-February if the resort's plan for payments is going to come to fruition. By mid-February, we should have a real good idea as to whether we are on target or whether we are going to need to make some further reductions. Recognizing all of the time and energy the General Manager and the resort employees have put into finding ways to reduce costs and increase profits, we would like to express our appreciation and gratitude for all of their efforts to make Odawa Casino Resort a success.

Furthering the fiduciary duties of Tribal Council, we are also looking Statute and the Indian Preference in Employment Statute. Please see these statutes on the LTBB website (www.ltbbodawa-nsn.gov) along with other work products before Tribal Council.

Please remember if you are in the northern Michigan area on a weekend, Tribal Council holds work sessions and Tribal Council meetings twice a month. Our calendar of work sessions and meetings are in this Odawa Trails newsletter on page 13 as well as on our website at www.ltb-bodawa-nsn.gov.

Youth Services Department

TRIBAL YOUTH LEND A HELPING HAND TO THE LTBB TRIBAL COMMUNITY

By Annette VanDeCar, Communications Coordinator

As part of LTBB Youth Wednesdays, the youth group usually picks a community service project every month.

The projects are voted on by the youth and usually occur on the second Wednesday of every month.

Among the community service projects completed so far include gardening and snow removal for the elders at the Wah-Wahs-Noo Da Ke Elder Housing Development located north of Harbor Springs, MI; stripping, staining and painting the arbor at the Pow Wow grounds in Harbor making Springs; flower crowns/wreaths at the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs; and decorating Halloween and Christmas cookies to give to the elders at Elders Luncheons. Jen Boda baked the cookies for the youth to decorate.

"It was a consensus among the youth that they wanted to do service projects to give back to the community that supports them," Youth Services Coordinator Joe Lucier said. "It's good for the kids to gain responsibility, and they feel good about helping others. We get good attendance for the services projects (15-20 youth)."

Approximately 20 youth participate in the youth group, mainly boys and girls in their teens.

Lucier wanted to thank the following individuals for their help during the service projects: Richard Wemigwase, Virgina Lewis, Steve Clausen and Boda.

The youth will continue to do other service projects in the future.

Through the Youth Services Department, varsity jackets were purchased for the youth. The youth will have to earn the varsity jackets by raising money in fundraisers, and they will have to earn patches for them by participating in service projects.

State of Michigan, LTBB and the Little River Band Settle Club Keno Lawsuit

On March 21, Michigan Governor Jennifer Granholm, the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians and the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians announced a settlement in the long-standing lawsuit over the Club Keno game. The agreement settled the question of whether Club Keno terminated the tribes' obligation to pay a portion of their tribal casino revenues to the Michigan Strategic Fund (MSF).

Under the settlement, the percentage of slot machine revenues paid by the tribes were reduced to 6% in most cases. In return, the tribes agreed to changes in their revenue sharing agreements that would make the payments more stable in the future.

The agreement also split approximately $52 million in electronic gaming revenue from the tribes that had been held in escrow since the dispute began in April 2005. It included more than $33 million paid in by Little River and $19 million-plus from LTBB. The state of Michigan received half of the escrowed money, approximately $26 million, to be used for economic development efforts through MSF. LTBB received approximately $10 million with Little River receiving almost $16 million.

LTBB Tribal Citizen Completes Morris K. Udall Foundation Native American Congressional Internship in Washington, D.C.

Editor's note: The following is a Morris K. Udall Foundation press release dated January 2, 2009. Cynthia Biro is the daughter of James Biro and Valerie (Laughlin) Biro.

In the summer of 2008, Cynthia C. Biro, Aniishnaabe from the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians in Harbor Springs, MI, successfully completed the Morris K. Udall Foundation Native American Congressional Internship in Washington, D.C.

The 2008 class of interns consisted of 12 students from 11 tribes and 11 colleges and universities. Since its inception in 1996, 149 Native American/Alaska Native students from 98 tribes will have participated in the program.

Raised in a small city just outside of Detroit, MI, Biro graduated from the University of Michigan in April 2007 with a B.A. in American Culture. Her interest in tribal governance and public policy began with her active involvement with the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) with the NCAI Youth Commission.

Biro hopes to "positively change Indian country by protecting our sovereignty, improving our economies, and always remaining involved with our youth."

Biro completed the intensive, 10-week internship in Washington, D.C. this summer, working full-time at the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Indian Education and observed the federal executive and legislative processes first-hand. Special enrichment activities provided her with opportunities to meet with key decision-makers in Washington, D.C.

Regarding the internship, Biro stated, "The Udall Internship is paramount in placing leading Native American students and young professionals at the forefront of legislative affairs. The opportunities waiting in Washington, D.C., are unbelievable! Over the 10 weeks, I built a stronger character, streamlined my career goals and obtained a renewed sense of purpose. The Udall Native American Internship Program is a vital component within the collective efforts across Indian country to ensure that our voices are heard."

The Morris K. Udall Foundation was authorized by Congress in 1992 to honor Congressman Udall's legacy of public service. The foundation is supported by a trust fund in the U.S. Treasury and contributions from the private sector. Congressman Udall served in the House of Representatives for three decades, a career distinguished by civility, integrity and consensus. He championed the rights of Native Americans and Alaska Natives, using his leadership in Congress to strengthen tribal self-governance and national environmental policy.

The deadline to apply for the 2009 Native American Congressional Internships in Washington, D.C., is January 30, 2009. For a complete listing of the 2008 Udall interns or to obtain more information on the Morris K. Udall Foundation, please visit our website at www.udall.gov or contact Program Manager Colin Ben at 520-901-8568 or by e-mail at ben@udall.gov.

Television Series Scheduled to Appear on PBS Depicts American History from a Native Perspective

A television series chronicling more than 350 years of history told from an American Indian perspective is scheduled to premiere on PBS in April 2009.

"We Shall Remain" is a five-part series of 90-minute documentary films that will air each week for five consecutive weeks beginning on April 13. The documentary films include "After the Mayflower," "Tecumseh's Vision," "Trail of Tears," Geronimo" and "Wounded Knee."

"After the Mayflower" deals with the 17th century European invasion and first contact with the Wampanoag Indians in Massachusetts, and the decades leading up to the King Phillips Wars, which devastated the northeastern woodlands tribes and settlers.

"Tecumseh's Vision" deals with Tecumseh and his vision of a pan-Indian movement and Tenskwatawa, who was also known as the Prophet.

"Trail of Tears" relates the tragic ethnic cleansing of the Cherokee Nation from its southeast homeland during which 4,000 Cherokee died of disease and starvation along the way to Oklahoma.

"Geronimo" is the story of the Apache warrior seen by some as a hero, seen by some as a troublemaker and seen by white settlers as a savage.

"Wounded Knee" examines the political and economic forces leading up to the emergence of the American Indian Movement (AIM) in the late 1960s and the events leading up to the group's takeover of Wounded Knee on the Pine Ridge reservation in South Dakota and the ensuing 71-day standoff with federal troops.

The films combine re-enactments of the historical narratives with commentary from contemporary tribal members, elders, historians and other scholars.

In addition to the documentaries, "We Shall Remain" has a massive multi-media and community outreach component. It includes mentoring emerging Native filmmakers, a national library initiative and a coalition of Native organizations and tribes, historical societies, museums, schools and other groups to plan and sponsor activities to promote understanding of local Native history and contemporary life.

To view clips of the documentaries, please visit www.pbs.org/we-shallremain.

LTBB Tribal Community Continues the Tradition of the Three Kings Supper

Odawa Trails staff report

Approximately 60 people attended the Three Kings Supper held at the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs, MI, on January 6.

Before the Europeans arrived, the Odawa people held mid-winter, spring and summer feasts. The Europeans forbid the Odawa people to hold these feasts. In order to still maintain their traditional feasts and because the majority of the Odawa people were Catholic, the Odawa people aligned some of their feasts with Christian holidays.

The mid-winter feast became the Three Kings Supper, the spring feast became the Return Supper, the summer feast became the Summer Solstice Celebration and the Ghost Suppers traditionally held in late spring/early summer were aligned with the Christian holidays of All Saints Day (November 1) and All Souls Day (November 2).

Odawa elders recalled the Three Kings Supper used to be held at different Odawa family residences for several years. It was then held at a church or parish hall before being held at the governmental center in more recent times. The tribal community continues this tradition, and people bring a dish to pass to the Beverly Wemigwase organized the event and continued her family's tradition of making the biscuits. One biscuit contained a dime, one biscuit contained a nickel, one biscuit contained a penny, 35 biscuits contained a bean and some biscuits contained nothing. Each person in attendance picked a biscuit.

The people, who selected the biscuits with the coins, are the "Three Kings" and are the hosts for the Return Supper held in the spring, and the people, who selected the biscuits with beans, bring food and help with the Return Supper. The hosts for the Return Supper are Ronda Ellis, Theresa Shawanesse and Alex Dewey. Ellis picked the biscuit with the penny, Dewey picked the biscuit with the dime and upon the request of Shawanesse, Tyler Laughlin picked a biscuit for her and that biscuit contained the nickel.

In addition to making the biscuits, Wemigwase also prepared fry bread. Sarah VanDeCar prepared corn soup and fry bread. Jim and Arlene Naganashe and Frank and Rochelle Ettawageshik provided paper products.

Beverly Wemigwase wanted to thank the Ettawageshiks, the Naganashes, Sarah VanDeCar, Virgina Lewis, Winnay Wemigwase, Rose Smalley, Jim Bransky and Annette VanDeCar for their assistance. Beverly Wemigwase also wanted to thank everyone who continued the tradition by attending the event and bringing a dish to pass.

Native American Issues Shape New CMU Classes

Editor's note: This information was posted on the Central Michigan University website on December 12, 2008. It is reprinted here with permission from Central Michigan University.

Graduate students will expand their knowledge of Native American issues through new classes at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant, MI. Beginning in January 2009, a CMU graduate program will include an option for students to study Native American issues in modern culture.

The new classes, which are a course study within CMU's Master of Arts in Humanities degree program, are interdisciplinary and will include topics such as Native American history, contemporary culture, film, religion, indigenous literature and others.

"Contemporary issues affecting Native American tribes like tribal sovereignty and cultural education tend to take a back seat to Indian gaming," said Joseph Sowmick, spokesman for the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe. "It is refreshing to see CMU take a lead academic role in bringing these important contemporary issues into the classroom for proper discourse."

"This program has long been very attractive to people thinking beyond and through barriers," said Ronald Primeau, English professor and director of CMU's Master of Arts in Humanities. "By taking classes in literature, history, film, music and the other arts, students are able to study in a way that makes connections in new ways."

CMU also offers an interdisciplinary minor in American Indian studies. Along with requiring that students gain elementary competency in the Ojibwe language, the program teaches students about the histories and cultures of Native people of North America, with special emphasis on the ways in which racism has impacted these communities both historically and in the contemporary period.

"This program will give added opportunities to those who want to work with tribal communities or educate students on tribal sovereignty and culture," adds Colleen Green, director of Native American Programs
