

NATURAL RESOURCE DEPARTMENT'S YOUTH CONSERVATION CORPS PROGRAM A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY FOR TRIBAL YOUTH

By Annette VanDeCar, Communications Coordinator

With its Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) Program, the Natural Resource Department (NRD) is providing four tribal youth with valuable natural resource-related work experience as well as a paycheck.

The YCC is a pilot project intended to provide LTBB youth with a summer job opportunity while familiarizing the youth with biological, environmental and conservation enforcement professions of the tribe. The goals of the program are to provide summer employment, foster an interest in science and math, foster an interest in pursuing higher education related to a natural resource/environmental field, complete actual on the ground projects, instill a good work ethic and self-confidence in participating youth and assist NRD in achieving strategic plan goals and objectives. The YCC consists of Youth Conservation Corps Leader Josh Graybiel and a youth work crew of Josie Laughlin, 16, Alex Dewey, 14, Yarrow Nowell, 17, and Jacob Kiogima, 17.

"To be receiving this opportunity at such a young age and to be compensated, that is pretty remarkable," Graybiel said. "I didn't get this type of an opportunity until I was in college. It's not easy work. It requires a good work ethic from the youth. There will be some hard days, but they'll be followed by easier days."

Their work week is four, eight-hour days with the project running from early June 2013 to late August 2013. Some of the projects include helping check bear baits, helping put seine nets on local water bodies, doing sapling removal around Odawa Circle near the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs, MI, working on the greenhouse located behind the NRD Building located at 7845 Odawa Circle in Harbor Springs, MI, working with Water Quality staff from the Environmental Services Program, working with Conservation Officers and making sure the trails at Waawaashkesh Wild Area are open and easily accessible.

In addition to Graybiel, the youth work with and learn from NRD staff.

"It's kind of like job shadowing, but it takes it one step further because the kids are getting hands-on experience and not just observing," Graybiel said. "Beach seining is a way to sample fish. We'll look at the types of fish in the water bodies, tally them and weight them. We'll be doing that all summer. They (NRD staff) set up bear baits in Emmet County (Michigan) to help determine the size of the bear population. The goal is to show them some of the various NRD projects the tribe facilitates. Every day, they'll be involved in a new project."

Graybiel is a Harbor Springs, MI, native who is close to completing his Bachelor of Science degree in Fisheries and Wildlife from Michigan State University.

LTBB TRIBAL CITIZEN DAN CLARK'S PAINTINGS FEATURED IN EXHIBIT AT PETOSKEY PUBLIC LIBRARY IN PETOSKEY, MI

By Annette VanDeCar, Communications Coordinator

Dan Clark said you need to find out what you do best and do it.

Clark, a 54-year-old LTBB Tribal Citizen who lives in Pellston, MI, has been doing that since he was a young child. He does mixed media artwork, specializing in oil on canvas. He is a self-taught artist. "When I was a kid, I could draw," Clark said. "All kids have creativity at that age, but I've always kept at it over the years. It's a lifelong hobby; it's something I'll never give up. We all have different things in us, and mine is art. Most of my artwork has a story behind it."

Twenty-eight of his paintings are currently on display at the Petoskey Public Library in Petoskey, MI, on the first and second floors. His exhibit started on May 1, 2013 and concludes on August 1, 2013. Last fall, he had an art exhibit at the Crooked Tree Arts Center in Petoskey, MI. Some of his paintings are hanging in Odawa Casino in Petoskey, Five of his paintings in the exhibit at the Petoskey Public Library are portraits of clowns.

"He (Dan) has a passion for it," said Traci, Dan's wife. "Some of his art doesn't take him very long to do, but the larger ones take months. He started doing paintings of clowns because I collect them."

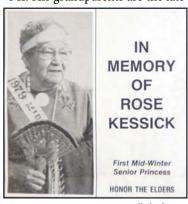

Clark said Dale Hull was instrumental in his art exhibit being at Crooked Tree Arts Center and at the Petoskey Public Library. Hull served as the Executive Director of the Crooked Tree Arts Center until his retirement in 2006 and is on the Board of Directors at the Petoskey Public Library. Hull was friends with Matthew Taylor, Traci's son who died in a car accident in 2005 at the age of 21. Taylor, a LTBB Tribal Citizen who attended the Santa Fe Art Institute in New Mexico, was an artist, sang and wrote

In addition to Hull, Clark credits Frank Ettawageshik. "I knew him 30 years ago when he had a gallery in Karlin, MI, and he taught us how to make pottery," Clark said of Ettawageshik. "I learned from him that making art and trading with people was a good thing."

Clark enjoys the creative process.

"I get down on my stomach on the floor and paint," Clark said. "Sometimes, I do faces. Sometimes, I do landscape scenery. Sometimes, it depends on what type of materials I have on hand. Whatever happens, happens."

Clark grew up in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, attended Kingsford High School in Kingsford, MI, and completed some classes at Bay College in Escanaba, MI, and at Northwestern Michigan College in Traverse City, MI. His grandparents are the late Joseph and the late Rose (Boursaw) Kessick. His mother is Joyce Jensen (Kessick). He has been happily married to Traci for 11 years and works at North Central Michigan College in Petoskey, MI. Clark has three sisters and one brother, who all live out west.

Waabshki-Miigwan Drug Court Program Representatives Brave THE ELEMENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN MOTORCYCLE RELAY FOR RECOVERY

By Annette VanDeCar, Communications Coordinator

In celebration of National Drug Court month, the Michigan Association of Drug Court Professionals (MADCP) and the National Association of Drug Court Professionals (NADCP) sponsored the Second Annual All-Rise America! National Motorcycle Relay for Recovery from May 20, 2013 to May 22, 2013.

The relay started at the Sault Ste. Marie Chippewa Tribal Court in Sault Ste. Marie, MI, the morning of May 20, 2013 with its second stop being at the LTBB Tribal Court, located at 911 Spring St. in Petoskey, MI, in the afternoon of May 20, 2013. LTBB riders representing the Waabshki-Miigwan Drug Court Program included Cultural Resources Advisor Tony Davis, Tribal Councilor Bill A. Denemy and Treasury Director Michael Garrow.

"The weather forecast was cold with the possibility of thunderstorms, so only three LTBB riders decided to partake in the adventure," Denemy said. "We left Petoskey at 7 a.m. on May 20 for Sault Ste. Marie to attend the Drug Court festivities there. The ride was a bit chilly, and the Mackinaw Bridge had some strong winds, but the group arrived dry and safe around 9 a.m. We enjoyed the hospitality and the celebration there. It was a very uplifting and rewarding event."

The group departed for the Waabshki-Miigwan Drug Court at approximately 11 a.m. with the riders being escorted by a Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians patrol vehicle and a chase vehicle with drug court personnel ending the procession.

'Their Tribal Judge rode the entire ride on the back of a Harley," Denemy said. "There were anywhere from six to nine bikes at any given time participating in the ride south. Once again, the Mighty Mac had some strong winds and cool temperatures, but the group arrived safely at the LTBB Tribal Court building at 1 p.m."

Lunch was served, and tours of the newly remodeled LTBB Tribal Court facilities were given. The MADCP flag was officially passed to the LTBB riders. At each stop of the relay, the MADCP flag is passed to another group of riders as a symbol of the collective impact of Michigan's drug courts.

"Inclement weather was approaching fast, so the crew from the north headed back to try and beat the approaching system," Denemy said.

Despite the weather, Davis and Denemy rode south with the MADCP flag stowed safely away en route to the 86th District Court in Traverse City, MI. As they arrived in Charlevoix, MI, a severe thunderstorm was approaching, so they took refuge in a car wash. After approximately 30 minutes, the storm passed, and the sun appeared. They then continued their trip to Traverse City, MI. They arrived at approximately 4:30 p.m. and officially handed the MADCP flag to the group waiting there.

From Traverse City, MI, the relay continued on to the 58th District Court/20th Circuit Court in Holland, MI, the 57th District Court in Allegan, MI, the 9th Circuit Court in Kalamazoo, MI, the Cass County Probate Court in Cassopolis, MI, the 9th Circuit Court Drug Treatment Court in Kalamazoo, MI, on May 21, 2013 and to the 15th Judicial District Court in Ann Arbor, MI, and the 36th District Court in Detroit, MI on May 22, 2013.

The LTBB Tribal Court also participated in the inaugural All-Rise America! National Motorcycle Relay for Recovery held May 18, 2012 to May 30, 2012 and was the second stop on that relay.

The Waabshki-Miigwan Drug Court is one of 113 drug courts in the state of Michigan. The courts range from adult drug courts, sobriety courts, juvenile drug courts, tribal drug courts, family dependency courts and the newest type of drug court, veteran treatment courts. Nationally, more than 75% of people who complete drug court are never arrested again.

Historically, participants usually become involved as a participant in drug courts following a criminal conviction when the judge orders the participant to successfully complete drug court as part of his or her probation or as a condition of a plea agreement. However, LTBB Tribal Citizens without criminal convictions, but who want help with their substance abuse problems, can petition to be admitted to Waabshki-Miigwan on a self-referral basis.

LTBB Tribal Court staff developed the Waabshki-Miigwan Drug Court Program (WMDCP) in 2010, the program was implemented in 2011, and it had its first graduate in January 2012. Its curriculum is a 44-week long program which utilizes Odawa values and teachings to encourage the adoption of a healthy, balanced lifestyle as envisioned by our ancestors and to eliminate harmful behaviors that have caused negative consequences for its clients.

Citizens' Only Website

The citizens' only website can be accessed through the tribal website. Through this portal, the tribe is able to put more sensitive information out for access by tribal citizens, but not available to the

The second goal of the grant is to live-stream Tribal Council Committee meetings through Adobe Connect. Not only will you be able to see and hear the committee citizens, but you will also be able to view the documents being discussed.

Adobe Connect can be accessed through any Internet connection. How you access the committee is through the following:

This is for tribal citizens only.

If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact the Tribal Council office at 1-866-927-0077 or attend a Tribal Council meeting. The calendar of meetings is in the Odawa Trails newsletters as well as our website at http://www. ltbbodawa-nsn.gov.

LTBB PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY EDUCATION SUMMER PROGRAM

JUST THE FACTS, MOM & DAD!

The most recent high school surveys have reported at least 47% of students have had sex.

During 2011, there were almost 11,000 teen births in Michigan between the ages of 15-19 and 112 births to girls under the age of 12.

1 in 3 adolescents in the U.S. will be the victim of physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner. This is higher than any other type of youth violence.

3 in 10 teen girls in the U.S. will get pregnant at least once before the age of 20.

WHAT CAN WE DO IN OUR COMMUNITY TO CHANGE THESE STATISTICS?

LTBB Community Health Department is rolling out its summer youth classes, which will provide them with a fun way to learn about healthy relationships, prevention of teen pregnancy and STD's, and about how important it is to finish high school and consider college. We encourage you to discuss this opportunity with your kids and to consider enrolling them. We will be holding two partial day sessions for each group of kids starting in late July. The schedule is printed in the July issue of the Odawa Trails newsletter and is also on the LTBB website under Community Health.

Please call Trista Paone at 231-242-1721 or Cathy Gibson at 231-242-1601 for questions and to register.

EPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

AGREEMENT INFORMATION

By Theresa Keshick, Department of Commerce Assis-

The Department of Commerce (DOC) would like to remind the tribal membership about a few items pertaining to the Tax Agreement.

First of all, I cannot express enough how important it is to keep your address updated.

The first step in becoming a Resident Tribal Member (RTM) is to officially change your address with the Enrollment Department. This must be done in writing and as soon as possible.

The DOC cannot and will not change the estimated beginning date (EBD) (which is always the first in any given month) of a member's tax exempt status (see example be-

It is YOUR responsibility to update your address on file with the Enrollment Department. This date will affect how many months you will be able to file the Annual Resident Tribal Member Sales Tax Credit (Tribal Form 4013). It is to your benefit to be able to file for the maximum number of months for this credit.

In addition, being an RTM will allow you to purchase large items such as vehicles, boats, motorcycles and off the road vehicles tax exempt.

There is a form that needs to be filled out called a "Request for TCE" (Tribal Certificate of Exemption), which is available in my office. Once this form is completely filled out, I will then issue the RTM the actual Tribal Certificate of Exemption (Tribal Form 3998).

If you plan on purchasing any of these items, please contact me FIRST, and I will be happy to get you the form via e-mail or fax. I am also able to fax the TCEs to the dealership you are doing business with.

Being an RTM will also allow you to be tax exempt on utility bills such as phone, cable, gas, propane, electricity, satellite and cellular service. If you have not filled out a Utility Provider Survey, please contact the DOC, and I will be happy to get one

Also, another important thing to remember is if you do move into the Tax Agreement Area (TAA), your RTM status does NOT take effect until the first day of the following month.

Example: I move to Petoskey, MI, (inside the TAA) on September 5, 2010. My RTM (EBD) status begins October 1, 2010. All updates are sent to the State of Michigan as close to the end of the month as possible.

The LTBB Tax Agreement is viewable on the State of Michigan's website at:

http://tinyurl.com/ ltbbtaxagr

If you have any other questions pertaining to the Tax Agreement, I can reached at my office at 231-242-1584 or via e-mail at tkeshick@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov.

to your principal place of residence, YOU NEED TO CONTACT ME FIRST before making the actual purchase(s). You must fill out the "Request for TCE" form located on the LTBB website or by contacting my office. I will then issue you a "Tribal Certificate of Exemption" for such purchases. The tribe no longer uses the Refund Method, as indicated in the monthly newsletter, as of January 1, 2008. If you've already made a purchase, Hello, my name is Good Walking Woman (Netawn Alice Kiogima), and I am from the Bald Headed Eagle clan. I am an Odawa woman from Biidasige. I have two children, my daughter is Miigwaans, and my son is Zhaawon. RJ Smith is my husband. My parents are Regina Sr. and Archie Jr. Kiogima. I am the new language teacher for the tribe. Our language is a very sacred thing. I love this language. I am returning to my homeland, waa ngichi-nendam.

MEET ANISHINAABEMOWIN LANGUAGE TEACHER NETAWN KIOGIMA

and I'm happy.

It feels great to come back home and work for my people. I have been on a long journey of self-discovery around Lake Michigan, and now, I'm back! Along the way, I met my husband, and we have two wonderful children. I have always come home to visit family and attend our powwow and for my children to know and learn where they come from. Being Anishinaabe has always been the core to my existence, and Anishinaabemowin is our sound that was given to us by the Creator. It has always been vital to my self-identity, and my responsibility to learn and pass on Anishinaabemowin to our future; our children and youth.

In 2003, I graduated with an Anishinaabemowin Teaching Diploma from Bay Mills Community College worked as a teacher assistant at the Waadookodaading Immersion School in LCO, Wisconsin, for three years. This inspired me to go back and finish my teaching degree to become state certified because that is always a big hurdle for tribal and immersion schools, no certified Native teachers with teaching degrees. On May 4, 2013, I graduated with a teaching degree from Central Michigan University. Now that I have accomplished one of my goals, it is time to continue my real passion for learning and teaching Anishinaabemowin. Mii sa iw, Miigwech.

Note: Zhaawshkwa- is commonly known as green, but it can also refer to blue, teal, ... shades of the sky and water.

Note: As in English, a collective noun, zhoonyaa, is the same in singular or plural.

Aside from the five colors described above, there are many other ways to talk about color.

One example is we can use the prefix "Mina" or "Mino" - our prefix form meaning good. Minaande, it is a nice color (a good color, a pleasing color). Minaaza, she/he/animate object is a nice color. We can also use other objects, known for usually being a certain color, to describe color or to describe the color of something. Zhoomin is the word for grape or raisin. Teachers/speakers often use it for purple. So, Zhoominaande. It is purple. But, it's really saying, "It is color of the grape color. (inanimate, singular)

Examples are given below of these types of descriptions (clearly, these cannot be used as "prefix" forms of color).

Zhoominaaza daabaan.
The car is purple.
Zhoominaazawok daabaanak.
The cars are purple.

The car is the color of the grape color.

RED SHAWL PROJECT

The Red Shawl Project, also referred to as the Honoring Survivors Shawl, came about through the Minnesota Indian Women's Sexual Assault Coalition as a way to honor all generations of survivors of domestic and sexual violence.

We are planning to create red shawls with our LTBB community to raise awareness about the devastating impact of violence on our people. The shawl represents the tears of Native women crying for the pain and suffering of generations; yet, they also represent nurturing, love of family and community, strength, beauty and solidarity.

We have chosen to use the colors of red, purple and teal. The color teal honors victims and survivors of sexual assault, the color purple honors victims and survivors of domestic violence, and the color red honors all Native people who have survived many forms of violence throughout history.

We hope you will make a shawl, and join us to honor all survivors of domestic and sexual violence as well as those who are no longer with us. We will dance to restore the traditional values of respect for Native men, women and children in our community.

Dance for yourself, dance for a loved one, dance for our ancestors, and dance for a future without violence.

For more information, you may contact: DV Court Docket Project Coordinator Audrey Perry-Atkinson at 231-242-1464

NATURAL RESOURCE DEPARTMENT

Tribal and Non-Tribal Communities Celebrate the Opening of the Paradise Lake Boat Washing Station

Submitted by the Environmental Services Program

On June 7, 2013, representatives from LTBB, the State of Michigan Department of Natural Resources and the Paradise Lake Improvement Board, who all partnered in a grant project funded by the Environmental Protection Agency Great Lakes Restoration Initiative Invasive Species Prevention category, came together with the Paradise Lake and tribal community and the Greensky women's hand drum group to celebrate the opening of the first free boat washing station in Emmet County, MI. This boat washing station will help minimize the spread of invasive species into and out of Paradise Lake, the neighboring waters and the Great Lakes.

This pilot project not only provided the construction of the first free boat washing station in Emmet County, but brought together many entities. A workgroup was formed, consisting of community members, representatives of the partnership and the Tip of the Mitt Watershed Council in the beginning to provide feedback on all components of this project. Surveys were given to water users to assess whether or not they will use this boat wash station, whether or not they feel it is good idea for prevention of invasive species and what steps or actions currently they take to minimize the spread of aquatic invasive species. Presentations are still being given to increase the chance for project transferability and shoreline management. Recreational users prevention practices such as rack cards and aquatic invasive species laminated cards for use on a boat for identification and notification purposes were created using project grant funds to increase knowledge of aquatic invasive species and prevention.

If you would like further information on this project or for any of the educational items mentioned, please feel free to contact Kira Davis, Water Quality Speat 231-242-1572.

smart shopping for veggies and fruits

10 tips for affordable vegetables and fruits

It is possible to fit vegetables and fruits into any budget. Making nutritious choices does not have to hurt your wallet. Getting enough of these foods promotes health and can reduce your risk of certain diseases. There are many low-cost ways to meet your fruit and vegetable needs.

celebrate the season Use fresh vegetables and fruits that are in season. They are easy to get, have more flavor, and are usually less expensive. Your local farmer's market is a great source of seasonal produce.

why pay full price? Check the local newspaper, online, and at the store for sales, coupons, and specials that will cut food costs. Often, you can get more for less by visiting larger grocery stores (discount grocers if available).

stick to your list Plan out your meals ahead of time and make a grocery list. You will save money by buying only what you need. Don't shop when you're hungry. Shopping after eating will make it easier to pass on the tempting snack foods. You'll have more of your food budget for vegetables and fruits.

try canned or frozen Compare the price and the number of servings from fresh, canned, and frozen forms of the same veggie or fruit. Canned and frozen items may be less expensive than fresh. For canned items, choose fruit canned in 100% fruit juice and vegetables with "low sodium" buy small amounts frequently Some fresh vegetables and fruits don't last long. Buy small amounts more often to ensure you can eat the foods without throwing any away buy in bulk when items are on sale For fresh vegetables or fruits you use often, a large size bag is the better buy. Canned or frozen fruits or vegetables can be bought in large quantitites when they are on sale, since they last much longer.

store brands = savings Opt for store brands when possible. You will get the same or similar product for a cheaper price. If your grocery store has a membership card, sign up for even more keep it simple Buy vegetables and fruits in their simplest form. Pre-cut, pre-washed, ready-to-eat, and processed foods are convenient, but often cost much more than when purchased in their basic forms.

plant your own Start a garden-in the yard or a pot on the deck-for fresh, inexpensive, flavorful additions to meals. Herbs, cucumbers, peppers, or tomatoes are good options for beginners. Browse through a local library or online for more information on starting a garden.

plan and cook smart Prepare and freeze vegetable soups, stews, or other dishes in advance. This saves time and money. Add leftover vegetables to casseroles or blend them to make soup. Overripe fruit is great for smoothies or baking.

eating better on a budget

10 tips to help you stretch your food dollars

Go to www.ChooseMyPlate.gov for more information.

Get the most for your food budget! There are many ways to save money on the foods that you eat. The three main steps are planning before you shop, purchasing the items at the best price, and preparing meals that stretch your food dollars.

Before you head to the grocery store, plan your meals for the week. Include meals like stews, casseroles, or stir-fries, which "stretch" expensive items into more portions. Check to see what foods you already have and make a list for what you need to buy.

get the best price Check the local newspaper, online, and at the store for sales and coupons. Ask about a loyalty card for extra savings at stores where you shop. Look for specials or sales on meat and seafood-often the most expensive items on your list.

compare and contrast Locate the "Unit Price" on the shelf directly below the product. Use it to compare different brands and different sizes of the same brand to determine which is buy in bulk It is almost always cheaper to buy foods in bulk. Smart choices are family packs of chicken, steak, or fish and larger bags of potatoes and frozen vegetables. Before you shop, remember to check if you have enough freezer space.

buy in season Buying fruits and vegetables in season can lower the cost and add to the freshness! If you are not going to use them all right away, buy some that still need time to convenience costs... go back to the basics Convenience foods like frozen dinners, pre-cut vegetables, and instant rice, oatmeal, or grits will cost you more than if you were to make them from scratch. Take the time to prepare your own-and save!

easy on your wallet Certain foods are typically low-cost options all year round. Try beans for a less expensive protein food. For vegetables, buy carrots, greens, or potatoes. As for fruits, apples and bananas are good choices.

cook once...eat all week!

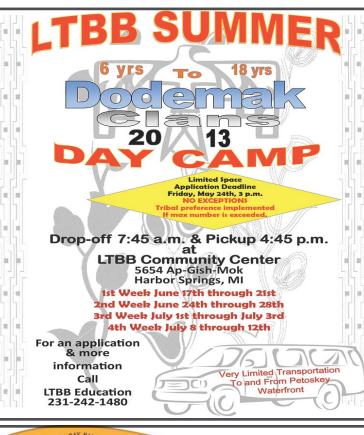

Prepare a large batch of favorite recipes on your day off (double or triple the recipe). Freeze in individual containers. Use them throughout the week and you won't have to spend money on take-out meals.

get your creative juices flowing Spice up your leftovers-use them in new ways. For example, try leftover chicken in a stir-fry or over a garden salad, or to make chicken chili. Remember, throwing away food is throwing away your money!

eating out Restaurants can be expensive. Save money by getting the early bird special, going out for lunch instead of dinner, or looking for "2 for 1" deals. Stick to water instead of ordering other beverages, which add to the bill.

OUTDOOR LIGHTING FORUM AWARDS LUN-CHEON

On April 22, 2013, I attended the 10th Annual Outdoor Lighting Forum Awards Luncheon, which acknowledged a decade of stars in outdoor lighting. The keynote speaker was Frank Ettawageshik, the Executive Director of the United Tribes of Michigan. The honorees who received awards in outdoor lighting were Harbor Springs Car Care, Johnstone Supply, Jones Landing Park, the Village of Mackinaw City, Three Pines Studio Dark Sky Advocate and Starry, Starry, Nights with Mackinaw City Public Schools.

An estimated 30% of "street light" is wasted each year because it spills up into the sky where it is not needed — that's an estimated 22,000 gig watt hours annually. At $0.10/hour, this results in a cost of $2.2 billion each year on wasted light, the equivalent of 3.6 tons of coal or 12.9 million barrels of oil, which translates further into 15.5 million metric tons of unnecessary greenhouse gases. These figures were submitted by the Emmet County Lighting Forum, and they thank us for joining, so we can once again find the fixed stars.

We sacrifice many things such as water; sometimes, there are waters we cannot drink. We are losing touch with our beautiful skies at night, and it seems we are losing a personal connection with our environment. However, there are movements being made such as this to be able to stay connected. The Outdoor Lighting Forum has been in existence since 2004, and our tribe was the very first one to acknowledge the beauty of our skies. Since 2004, there have been 43 honorees of excellence in outdoor lighting.

MICHIGAN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORA-TION (MEDC)

I represented our tribe with the State of Michigan at the Fourth Annual Tribal Economic Forum held May 16-17, 2013 in Lansing MI. It is my pleasure to acknowledge the progress our Michigan tribes have made toward economic diversification, and hopefully, future tribal projects. Michael A. Finney, the President and CEO of MEDC, says his team remains committed to a customized approach to tribal economic development. MEDC stands ready to connect resources and partners to business diversification efforts, to create a platform to foster collaboration and strategic partnerships and to strengthen regional economies.

Finney encourages open dialogue and recommendations on how MEDC can better serve our business development needs and identify strengths to be leveraged.

MEDICAID EXPANSION

I, sometimes, like to get other things out there, especially to the older folks who have concerns about Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security or whatever to let you know I am thinking about many issues relating to us in addition to tribal issues. Michigan Governor Rick Snyder has decided to call in the big guns for Michigan's attempt to expand Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act. United States Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary Kathleen Sebelius is expected to come to Lansing, MI, to talk to recalcitrant lawmakers.

Governor Snyder has spoken to the Secretary of HHS on how they can work together and go through the issues that are doable, what other states are doing and how they might come up with the proper solution, which works for all.

Governor Snyder included expanding Medicaid to more than 400,000 residents in his budget proposal, something backed by House and Senate Democrats. But, the House Republicans are proposing additional conditions some believe will be rejected by the federal government.

Senate Majority Leader Randy Richardville (R-Monroe) said there is no way the federal government would institute a program in Michigan without elected officials giving their input also. It's $2 billion in longterm dependency, and he said Michigan has to make sure it is being smart with its money.

PARADISE LAKE BOAT WASH RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY

On June 7, 2013, I attended a ribbon cutting ceremony in Carp Lake, MI, at the boat launch of Paradise Lake where the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians and its partners, through a process, were awarded funding through the 2011 Great Lakes Restoration Initiative Invasive Species Prevention Program to construct a boat wash for water users to wash their boats, trailers and gear before and after departing

Paradise Lake. The construction and design of this free boat wash station as well as the education and outreach components of this grant were successful due to the collaborative efforts and completion of responsibilities of all the partners. This pilot project was a partnership between the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, the State of Michigan Department of Natural Resources and the Paradise Lake Improvement Board. This ribbon cutting ceremony was attended by the Greensky Singers hand drum group, representatives from Michigan's First Congressional District, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Region 5, Michigan Department of Natural Resources Parks and Recreation Field Division, Paradise Lake Improvement Board, local officials, workgroup members and the community. This public boat wash will help minimize the spread of aquatic invasive species in and out of Paradise Lake, the inland waters, the Great Lakes and its connecting waters.

Migwech, speak the language and follow our traditional and cultural values to preserve our strong and unified tribal identity.

The Education Department will host a Graduation Celebration for the LTBB tribal community on Friday, August 9th, at the LTBB Governmental Center in Harbor Springs, MI. Dinner and ceremony begin at 5:30 pm. If you are a graduate or a family member of a graduate and would like to attend, please contact the Education Department at 231-242-1480 to RSVP. JEPARTMENT OF THE REPATRIATION, ARCHIVES & RECORDS

Archivist Jessica Dominic

Jessica Dominic, a LTBB Tribal Citizen, started as an Archivist in the Repatriation, Archives and Records Department on May 13, 2013.

Dominic, who is originally from Charlevoix, MI, previously worked as a Librarian Assistant at the Charlevoix Public Library in Charlevoix, MI, for 2-1/2 years and at the Petoskey Public Library in Petoskey, MI, for a year. She also worked at John Cross Fisheries in Charlevoix,

After graduating from Charlevoix High School in Charlevoix, MI, she earned her Associate of Arts degree from North Central Michigan College. She plans on pursuing both Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Library Science.

"It's interesting work," Dominic said of being an Archivist. "I'm learning a lot about the history of our tribe."

Her grandparents are the late Robert Dominic, Sr. and the late Waunetta (McClellan) Dominic, who along with Levi McClelland formed the Northern Michigan Ottawa Association (NMOA) in 1948. NMOA fought to secure a fair settlement for lands taken from Michigan's Native Americans in the early 19th century.

Her parents are Dennis and Bonnie Dominic. Her siblings are Sarah Sheaffer, who works in the Facilities Department at Odawa Casino in Petoskey, MI, and Chris Dominic, who sings country music and works as a valet at Odawa Casino. Her boyfriend, Casey Butler, works at the Sage Restaurant, which is located inside Odawa Casino.

ENFORCEMENT EPARTMENT

FIREWORKS LAWS AND SAFE HANDLING PRACTICES

Submitted by the Law Enforcement Depart-

On January 1, 2012, Governor Rick Snyder signed into law the Michigan Fireworks Safety Act which made the sale and use of some consumer fireworks legal. Bottle rockets, roman candles, sparklers and firecrackers are some of the fireworks included in the law. It also brings new responsibilities to retailers who wish to sell fireworks. Here are some points to remember when using fireworks at your summer celebrations.

The State Fire Marshall urges consumers to buy fireworks from authorized dealers. These dealers, by law, must have a Consumer Fireworks Certificate displayed in their store. Certified retailers must verify the age of the purchaser by checking identification such as a military ID, enhanced driver's license or a passport.

Currently, the law prohibits sale to anyone under the age of 18. The act also prohibits anyone who is under the influence of drugs or alcohol to use fireworks. Fireworks are not to be used on public, school or private property of another person unless express permission is obtained to use the fireworks on that property. Those caught violating these laws are subject to being convicted of a misdemeanor or felony punishable by imprisonment of not more than five years and fines of up to $10,000 or both, depending on the severity of the crime.

The legal fireworks used by the consumer market are defined by the three categories: Consumer, low impact and novelties. Consumer fireworks include summer favorites such as roman candles, firecrackers and bottle rockets. Low impact are those ground-based, sparkling wheel, ground sparkling and smoke devices. Examples of this class would include handheld sparklers and cone sparklers. Novelty fireworks would include fireworks such as snappers, drop snaps, snakes, party poppers and smoke balls. Pictures of these can be seen on the included chart.

Snappers/ Drop Pops

Novelties are not regulated in Michigan.

The harmful potential of many fireworks can be avoided by never underestimating the dangers of fireworks. Sparklers can be dangerous because of the intense heat (as high as 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit) and are hot long after they've burned out. Sparklers can quickly ignite clothing and are hot enough to cause third degree burns.

When using fireworks at your summer party, remember to always purchase fireworks from an authorized dealer and use them under adult supervision. Follow the manufacturer's directions before use. Light fireworks one at a time, then immediately back away to a safe distance. Keep a bucket of water or a garden hose on hand in case of fire. You may want to use the bucket of water to douse spent spar-

Allow your children to play with or ignite fireworks.

Place any part of your body directly over a fireworks device when lighting the fuse.

Try to re-light or pick up fireworks that have not ignited fully.

Buy fireworks packaged in brown paper. These are made for professional use and are illegal for non-professional users to possess.

Point or throw at other people.

Carry fireworks in pocket or shoot them off in metal or glass containers.

Re-light "dud" fireworks that have not fully functioned; instead, wait 15 to 20 minutes, and then, soak it in a bucket of water.

For those who want to learn more about fireworks safety, the Michigan Fireworks Act or are looking for state-certified fireworks retailers, go to the Bureau of Fire Services website at www.michigan.gov/bfs.

OJIBWE GEORGE MARTIN CARRIES IN EAGLE STAFF BEFORE SOLD OUT STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF CROWD

Editor's note: The following article appeared on Native News Network on June 1, 2013 and is reprinted here with permission.

CHICAGO - Respected Ojibwe elder George Martin carried the Eagle Staff in front of a sold-out crowd prior to Game One of the NHL Stanley Cup Playoff Western Conference Final on Saturday afternoon (June 1, 2013) between the Chicago Blackhawks and the Los Angeles Kings.

Martin was there as part of the color guard that represented different branches of the U.S. military in front of a national television audience during the singing of the national anthem. Martin served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean Conflict.

Having American Indians represented during the singing of the national anthem is the result of work done by the American Indian Center of Chicago that has worked with the Chicago Blackhawks organization to promote goodwill within the American Indian Chicago community.

"Chicago Blackhawks Charities is proud to create a long-term partnership with the American Indian Center and has pledged through its community fund to assist the Native population in Chicago and throughout Illinois," reads a statement on the Chicago Blackhawks Charities website.

"As part of our partnership between the American Indian Center of Chicago and the Chicago Blackhawks, it is about educating more people about our culture. Where better to start than with our veterans on national TV?" commented Ioe Podlasek, Executive Director of the American Indian Center of Chicago.

"During the last playoff series, a U.S. Marine veteran, Barbara Whitehead O'Rourke, carried an Eagle Staff as did many others during the regular season."

Martin was excited about the invitation when reached by Native News Network on Friday evening (May 31, 2013). He said he and his wife, Sydney, would be making the two and half hour trip from their home in Hopkins, Michigan.

Martin was born on the Whitefish community of the Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe reservation in Wisconsin. He serves as the head veteran dancer at many pow wows and other events throughout the Great Lakes region. Additionally, he performs naming ceremonies and other traditional ceremo-

Tribal Nations Map Documents Native American Tribes in Pre-COLUMBIAN TIMES

Editor's note: The following is a press release by Aaron Carapella.

We officially announce the release of the first-ever, newly copy written Tribal Nations Map.

I grew up knowing about my Cherokee heritage. My maternal grandparents are both mixedblood Cherokees from Oklahoma. They would tell me, "You are part Native American, and you should know about it." At six-years-old, my grandpa gave me a Scholastic book called "Custer and Crazy Horse." Reading that book solidified in me an understanding of the injustice which had happened to tribes in this country. It was the start to the eventual path I was led on. I went from reading Native books to attending pow wows, getting involved in local tribal meetings and concerns and joining the American Indian Movement of Southern California. It also led to the creation of the Tribal Nations Map.

As a young kid, I had always sought more knowledge about Native history and cultures. I would attend pow wows and scour through the items vendors had for sell. From time to time, I would see maps of the traditional territories of our tribes, but thought they looked incomplete, and the names mostly inaccurate. I filed away the idea of one day creating a more authentic looking one myself. Years went by as I looked from time to time for a better map. One day, I decided, "It's time to make a REAL map of Native America as WE see it." It started with four poster boards and a rough pencil drawing of the United States. Over the next 14 years, I would create the Tribal Nations Map.

I spent countless thousands of hours poring through books, investigating in library archive buildings, making phone calls and traveling to remote reservations in the spirit of creating the most thorough map of Native America in existence. I have many stories of difficulties tracking down tribal members who could tell me their tribe's real name. Many of these told me they were some of the last speakers of their tribal language or one of the only ones who knew the translation of the name.

My intention for the Tribal Nations Map is for it to replace existing maps lacking in substance. Many maps of tribes in the United States only contain the names of 50 to 100 tribes, and many times, utilize the incorrect names imposed on them by outsiders. My intention is also to instill pride in our Native American people, especially the youth. I also want people to understand this entire country was covered with tribes. There is a myth only small sections of the United States were populated before the coming of the Europeans. That is completely inaccurate. I have sold them to universities, museums, tribal offices and individuals. I hope to continue spreading them throughout Indian country as well as the dominant society to educate people of our true history.

Once I completed the research for the map, I then decided to use a free, map making software program called Inkscape. There, I uploaded an outline of the United States and started inputting tribes one by one. I added historical pictures of

KEEP MICHIGAN WOLVES PROTECTED WEIGHS OPTIONS Michigan Natural Resources Commission Establishes a Hunting and Trapping Season for 2013

Editor's note: The following is a Keep Michigan Wolves Protected (KMWP) press release dated May 22, 2013.

Action by the Board of State Canvassers today (May 22, 2013) to certify petition signatures gathered by Keep Michigan Wolves Protected to place a wolf hunting referendum on the November 2014 ballot serves as another reminder of the abuse of power at the hands of Michigan Governor Rick Snyder, the Michigan State Legislature and the Michigan Natural Resources Commission (NRC) to silence the voice of Michiganders who signed the petitions to stop the senseless slaughter of wolves.

"Following the submission of more than 255,000 signatures, the Board of State Canvassers upheld its responsibility to the people of Michigan by certifying our petition drive to place the wolf hunting referendum on the November 2014 ballot," Jill Fritz, Director of KMWP, said. "How will Governor Snyder, the legislature and NRC explain to Michigan's 7.2 million registered voters that wolves are being needlessly slaughtered and their count? We will continue our tireless struggle to stop wolf hunting and trapping in Michigan and fight for the return of the democratic process for KMWP submitted more than 255,000 petition signatures on March 27, 2013 to suspend Public Act 520 - a law which was rushed through last December's lame duck legislative session and signed by the governor to classify wolves as a game species - until a referendum vote in November 2014.

Two weeks later, Senate Bill 288 was introduced and fast-tracked through the legislative process in 23 days and signed by Governor Snyder on May 8, 2013 before the Board of State Canvassers could certify signatures of registered voters from every corner of the state, essentially nullifying the petition effort.

S.B. 288 empowers the NRC, a politically-appointed seven-person panel, to designate animals as game species without legislative or voter oversight. Michigan voters would be unable to reverse decisions of the NRC because it is a regulatory body. This legislation has resulted in Michigan's 7.4 million registered voters losing their right to decide whether to protect Michigan's fragile population of 658 wolves in the November 2014 election.

On May 9, 2013, the NRC voted 6-1 to establish a wolf hunting and trapping season in three areas of Peninsula of Michigan between November 15, 2013 and December 31, 2013.

KMWP is committed to protecting Michigan's wolves. KMWP will continue to support this ballot referendum and is considering other options, including another referendum campaign to place S.B. 288 on the ballot in November 2014.

Facts

Michigan's wolf population has decreased from 687 to 658 according to the latest census by the De-

Natural Resources.

More than 2,000 Michigan residents from the Upper and Lower Peninsulas volunteered for Keep Michigan Wolves Protected, a coalition of animal welfare groups, conservationists, veterinarians, Native American tribes and faith leaders, to gather more than 255,000signatures during sub-freezing temperatures in only 67 days.

Despite the wolf population's fragile status, and over the objections of renowned Michigan-based wolf scientists, the Michigan legislature rushed a bill through in December 2012, opening the door to the same practices which virtually eradicated the wolf population in the first place.

Wolves are extremely shy and have a natural fear of humans. In the past 100 years, there has never been a verified attack by a wolf on a human in the lower 48 states.

Current Michigan law already allows farmers and dog owners to remove or shoot wolves attacking their animals, and farmers may obtain a permit from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources to remove additional wolves following a depredation incident. Fewer than 8% of the Upper Peninsula's farms have reported any wolf depredations in the past 17 years.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, CIVIL RIGHTS DISMISSES COMPLAINT FILED BY MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL RIGHTS IN REGARDS TO THE USE OF AMERICAN INDIAN MASCOTS, NICKNAMES, SLOGANS, CHANTS AND IMAGERY

On February 8, 2013, the Michigan Department of Civil Rights (MDCR) filed a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education, Civil Rights (OCR) asking OCR to issue an order prohibiting the continued use of American Indian mascots, nicknames, slogans, chants and/or imagery.

MDCR's complaint asserted new research clearly established the use of American Indian imagery negatively impacts student learning, creating an unequal learning environment in violation of Article VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. It highlighted a number of studies which showed decreased achievement, self-esteem and self-identity among American Indian students as well as increased stereotyping of all minority groups.

The complaint asked OCR to determine the use of American Indian mascots, names, terms, graphics and/or other imagery negatively impacts a minority of primary and secondary students, thereby, denying them equal protection and opportunity; and OCR, therefore, order:

- The use of American Indian mascots, names, terms, graphics and/or other imagery (particularly, those which portray stereotypical Indian images as warriors) will not be permitted in primary or secondary educational institutions that receive federal funds (except in the very limited and well-defined circumstances described below).
- The term "Redskins" has historically been used as a racial slur, and for this reason, carries particularly negative connotations that accentuate the negative impact of associated stereotypes. Use of the term as a team name by primary or secondary educational institutions that receive federal funds is always impermissible.

Petoskey High School in Petoskey, MI, has sports teams with the nickname Northmen, and its logo contains American Indian

- Where limited uses of images, particularly the use of names of locally significant tribes or tribal persons with tribal support for doing so can be done in a way that is respectful and which does not reinforce any singular limiting image of Indian peoples, they may be continued, but only within guidelines provided by OCR.
- The use of American-Indian names and/or imagery by each of the schools named in this complaint falls within the impermissible uses described above and must cease.

MDCR's complaint addressed only primary and secondary schools, so colleges and universities would not have been impacted by any action OCR might take in response. The MDCR complaint identified 35 public school districts in Michigan using American Indian imagery as of the time of the complaint's filing.

On May 31, 2013, MDCR received a letter from OCR stating OCR had dismissed the complaint because it "concluded the information provided is not sufficient for OCR to infer that racial discrimination has occurred or is occurring. There may be state and local laws relevant to your complaints. You may wish to consult with a private attorney, local legal aid organization and/or state or local bar association, which may be able to assist you further."

MDCR responded to the dismissal of the complaint in a statement released on June 3, 2013, stating, "We are disappointed that US Ed considered our complaint based only on the previously-established 'hostile environment' standard, but chose not to consider whether the standard itself needs to be reexamined based on the empirical evidence we provided showing that it fails to prevent harm to students. MDCR believes the evidence is clear that students are being hurt by the continued used of American Indian mascots and imagery. We will continue to look for ways to ensure all students are equally protected. MDCR is reviewing the decision and considering its next steps."

Michigan Indian Land Claims Settlement CERTIFICATE REDEMPTION UPDATE

All adults have been paid or they have deferred payment to a later date, however, tribal children who were enrolled before December 16, 1997 but had not yet turned 18 are still in the process of redeeming their certificates.

The following steps are intended to aid in this process. Redeeming certificates from the Michigan Indian Land Claims Settlement Act, Public Law 105-143, are as follows:

- 1. Determine your eligibility: Tribal citizens who were enrolled, but had not reached the age of 18 on December 16, 1997 are eligible to redeem their certificates upon reaching the age of 18.
- 2. Sign your certificates with a notary: The tribal citizen redeeming his her certificates must have a notarized signature.
- 3. Copy two pieces of identification: One piece of identification (e.g. Driver's license) must have a picture, and the second piece needs at least
- 4. Mail your signed certificates, the mailing address you would like your check sent to and two pieces of identification to the following address

Note: The address on the certificates is not correct:

LITTLE TRAVERSE BAY BANDS OF ODAWA INDIANS ELDERS ADVISORY Board Meeting Minutes

The LTBB Elders Advisory Board provides a supportive forum for the varied needs for the elders in the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians. The purpose is to aid and assist in the improvement of the economic, social, healthful and spiritual well-being of elders. The board acts as an advocate to provide assistance to the performance of the Elders Program staff. The board also perpetuates a positive influence on the members to promote emotional and spiritual well-being through social interactions.

Date: April 30, 2013 Called to Order: 1:13 p.m.

Present: Chairperson Virgina Lewis, Vice Chairperson Sarah VanDeCar, Members Bill Denemy, Sr., Kahtnee Tobasageshik, John Kawegoma, Janice Shackleford, Richard Wemigwase, Emily Harrington, Fran Holdorph, Mary Lou Bowers and Elders Outreach Coordinator Tamela Okuly-Shananaquet

Absent: Secretary Bea Law and Douglas Emery

Motion made to approve the amended agenda by Emily Harrington and seconded by Kahtnee Tobasageshik.

Motion to approve the April 2, 2013 minutes with corrections by Richard Wemigwase and seconded by Bill Denemy, Sr.

Old Business

Report of the April 19, 2013 Legal and Legislative Committee meeting, which was attended in its entirety by John Kawegoma, Virgina Lewis and Elders Outreach Coordinator Tamela Okuly-Shananaquet with periodic attendance by Janice Shackleford, Douglas Emery, Bea Law, Richard Wemigwase and Bill Denemy, Sr. Also in attendance were Tribal Councilor Aaron Wayne Otto, Tribal Councilor Bill Denemy, Jr., Tribal Council Secretary Regina Gasco-Bentley, Tribal Councilor John Keshick, Tribal Councilor Winnay Wemigwase, Vice Chairperson Julie Shananaquet, Tribal Council Administrative Assistant Yvonne McShane, Legislative Office Manager Michele LaCount, Legislative Services Attorney Donna Budnick and Treasury Director Michael Garrow. Discussions about making the Elders Program, through the Waganakising Odawak Statute, to the Department of Ki-Kaa-Jik Services, and LTBB's need for the program to become a department to service the needs of the influx of seniors within the next 10 years. Progress was made, and the meeting adjourned at 4 p.m. The next meeting is May 9, 2013 at 10 a.m. An invite letter was written, personally reviewed by a majority of the board, and hand-delivered to the following individuals: Chairman Dexter McNamara, Vice Chairperson Julie Shananaquet in her office, Tribal Administrator Albert Colby, Jr. (given to the Chairman) and to Tribal Council Administrative Assistant Mike Smith for the Tribal Council members. This was to answer any questions about the forming and activities of the Elders Advisory Board by Executive and Legislative offices. However, no one attended the meeting, but there were responses from Tribal Administrator Albert Colby, Jr. and Tribal Councilor Winnay Wemigwase.

Past meeting minutes have been posted on the Elders Program bulletin board and published in the Odawa Trails newsletter.

New Business

At the Legal and Legislative Committee meeting, Elders Outreach Coordinator Tamela Okuly-Shananaquet explained to the attendees with a diagram the function of an Elders Department versus an Elders Program. Presently, our Elders Outreach Coordinator and Elders Outreach Assistant are identifying, referring and doing follow-up when needed by initiating further service as needed due to non-compliance by other departments for the needed services to elders. An example of doing more with less. Questions were answered.

Concern was noted for the elders living on Social Security, drawing from their wages in the 1930's and 1940's at today's prices. We all agreed LTBB should do more for these elders.

Food and utilities reimbursement was discussed as a way to help all LTBB elders, not just those in the immediate area. A possible two times a year food and utilities reimbursement was discussed.

Janice Shackleford reported on a visit to the LTBB Health Department, and the response about hearing concerns, both for testing and hearing aids. The Health Department is not ready for the hearing aid program.

Elders Outreach Coordinator Tamela Okuly-Shananaquet discussed the programs and events planned for May 2013 and June 2013. Our input was welcomed. She explained the Hearing Aid Ad-Hoc Committee study is complete, and Vice Chairperson Julie Shananaquet wrote policies and procedures, which were received by the committee and turned in to the Executive for signature.

It was announced there was a need for more elder attendance at Tribal Council Meetings and at Budget and Finance

It was decided an Elders Advisory Board panel would be available at the May 7, 2013 Elders Luncheon to inform the elders and to answer questions.

OUR MEETINGS ARE OPEN TO ANYONE. FUTURE MEETING DATES AND PLACES ARE POSTED.

A motion to adjourn by Emily Harrington and seconded by John Kawego-

Meeting adjourned at 2:20 p.m.

Next meeting is June 4, 2013 at 1 p.m. in the Tribal Council Chambers.

Minutes by Virgina Lewis in the absence of Secretary Bea Law.

Native Americans from a variety of tribes to show just how diverse our nation's style of dress and appearance are. I also added pictures of different tribal dwellings. I then took this program to a graphic designer in Flagstaff, AZ - Overdrive Media and Printing - and had them help me with a background template, color and layout. We also decided on a standard size for the map at 35 by 52 inches. Smaller versions will soon be available, but because there are almost 600 names on the map, a larger size displays them better.

I published and copy wrote my map independently through the U.S. Copyright Office. I was assured it is the only map of its kind. The concept of a map documenting every tribe, using Native tribal names had not been copy written up to this point.

The Concept of the Tribal Nations Map

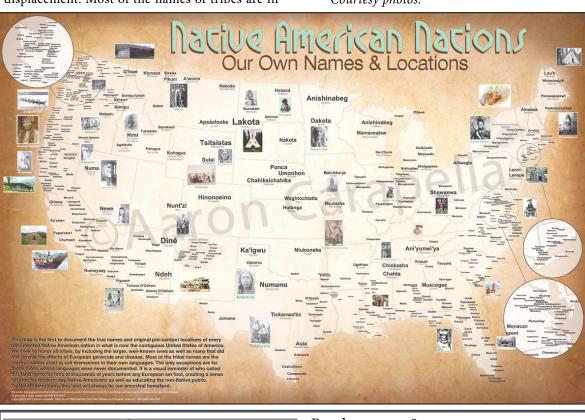

This map presents every documented, known Native American tribe here in the United States in Pre-Columbian times in approximately the year 1490. All of the tribal nations documented here are in their original locations before the European invasion affected their movement and displacement. Most of the names of tribes are in their own language and are not the names given to them either by the invading Europeans or even other tribes. For example, we correctly use the name Numinu for what most Americans would call the Comanche Nation. The Sioux are referred to here in their own language as the Lakota. Unfortunately, many of the tribes here are indeed listed by their given name. Their original names were lost in the war against the Indians which left many tribes numberless or forced remnant bands to amalgamate into larger, stronger tribes. We seek here to honor those hundreds of tribal nations which existed in their respective territories for millennia unscathed until the encroachment of Europeans. This is a tribute to all of those forgotten tribes whose names had been lost to the wind, but who live in the hearts and minds of modern-day Native Americans who managed to survive the largest full-scale holocaust in man's history. We also honor the indigenous nations of this land by giving them ownership of their own names for themselves.

He graduated from Harbor Springs High School in Harbor Springs, MI, in 2009 and grew up a few miles from the LTBB Governmental Center and the LTBB NRD Building.

"I've always enjoyed science and math in school," Graybiel said. "I grew up appreciating the plethora of natural resources here. We're very fortunate to live in an area with so many. It's a great opportunity for me to get experience in my field, and I like working with youth."

The idea for the YCC Program originated with the Natural Resources Commission and the Natural Resource Department, and it came to fruition with assistance from other LTBB departments. An informational meeting for parents and youth to learn about the program was held on May 8, 2013. The youth had orientation and started working on June 10, 2013.

"My parents were workers, and I learned that working for someone (a job) was an important part of life," Clark said. "I learned on my own that beer made me feel good one day and terrible the next. I made it through alcohol. I went through the (Hannahville) Three Fires Rehab in Bark River (Michigan), which is an excellent program. Sobriety is a big part of my life. I've been sober since 1996."

Clark plans on taking a couple years off from whole new body of paintings and drawings and look for an art gallery to represent him locally.
