

WAGANAKISING ODAWAK STATUTE 2006-015

THE TRIBAL SEAL OF THE WAGANAKISING ODAWAK NATION

SECTION I. PURPOSE

It is recognized that the Tribal Seal represents pride in the accomplishments of the Waganakising Odawak, and it is desired that the Tribal Seal be displayed as symbol of acknowledgment of the sovereign nation status of the Waganakising Odawak.

SECTION II. CREATION OF TRIBAL SEAL

The Tribal Seal shall be that created by the Waganakising Odawak through Tribal Council motion on December 5, 1999, which has been in common use by the Tribal Government since that action.

SECTION III. DESCRIPTION OF THE TRIBAL SEAL

The Tribal Seal of the Waganakising Odawak Nation shall be the size of an American Silver Dollar. The design portion of the mark depicts in a circle an Anishinaabe paddling a canoe on a lake. An eagle soars across the sky in front of the sun. A crooked tree branch, an elk, a bear and a turtle are depicted within a circle with six feathers hanging from the circle.

SECTION IV. USE OF TRIBAL SEAL; MEANS OF AUTHENTICATION

The use of the Tribal Seal is therefore established in accordance to the following standards:

1. The embossed seal is the corporate mark of identification signifying the authenticity of statutes and resolutions executed in the name of Waganakising Odawak.
2. The non-embossed seal may be used within the Waganakising Odawak for purposes authorized by the Waganakising Odawak Tribal Council.

SECTION V. PROTECTOR OF THE TRIBAL SEAL

Under the Constitution the Secretary "shall maintain and protect the Tribal Seal." The Tribal Secretary may carry out this duty through ensuring safe storage of the Tribal Seal at the Tribal Governmental offices with staff assistance.

SECTION VI. ALTERATION OF TRIBAL SEAL

The Tribal Seal shall not be altered unless by a unanimous vote of the Waganakising Odawak Tribal Council.

SECTION VII. UNAUTHORIZED USE; CONVICTION; PENALTY

1. Any unauthorized use of the Tribal Seal, shall be deemed a civil offense.
2. Any person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this Statute shall be guilty of a civil offense and upon conviction thereof shall be a fine of not more than Five Hundred dollars ($500.00), including costs, fees, per each offense.

SECTION VIII. SEVERABILITY

If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, phrase or portion of this Statute is, for any reason, held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

SECTION IX. EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective upon the signature of the Executive, or 30 days from submission to the Executive Branch, or if the Executive vetoes the legislation, then upon Tribal Council override of the veto.
