SECTION V. COMPOSITION, APPOINTMENTS, OATH OF OFFICE, VACANCIES, AND REMOVAL OF ELECTION BOARD

A. Composition

1. The Election Board shall be appointed by Tribal Council and shall consist of five (5) enrolled Tribal citizens, eighteen (18) years of age or older who meet the voting eligibility requirements.
2. Two or more members of the same immediate family shall not serve on the same Election Board at the same time.
3. Election Board Officers - The Election Board shall organize itself with a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and a Secretary/Treasurer.
4. Election Board members cannot be candidates for any Tribal elected position while serving on the Election Board.

B. Appointment and Terms

1. The initial appointment of the Election Board will be for staggered terms consisting of two (2) two year terms and three (3) four year terms. The terms thereafter shall be for four (4) years.

2. There shall be no limit on reappointment.
3. Election Board members shall serve on no more than two (2) Tribal Boards or Commissions simultaneously.
4. Members will serve until their successors are appointed and sworn in.

C. Oath of Office

Election Board Members are to be sworn in under an oath of office prepared and administered by the Tribal Court within thirty (30) days of their appointment.

1. Election Board members shall be subject to the Constitutionally Mandated Rules of Conduct for Officials of Tribal Government.

D. Vacancies

In the event a vacancy occurs on the Election Board by virtue of death, resignation, or removal, the Tribal Council shall appoint a Tribal citizen who meets the eligibility requirements for the remainder of the unexpired term.

E. *Removal of Members of Election Board (Refer to Article XIII D. of the Constitution)

Upon presentation of a petition signed by at least one hundred (100) members alleging neglect of duties or intentional wrongdoing, and a hearing where the accused is afforded proper due process, the Judiciary may remove Election Board members for good cause.

SECTION VI. MEETINGS, MINUTES AND PHONE POLLS

A. Meetings

Election Board shall develop a Meeting Policy for Regular, Special and Emergency meetings for Tribal Council approval.

B. Minutes

Once approved, the minutes will be the official record of the Election Board meetings. The minutes of the meeting shall include but not limited to the date and time the meeting occurred, the call to order, motions or proposed motions, seconds, Public comment, etc.

The following provisions will be utilized when writing the minutes of the meetings. The minutes are to provide as much information as possible to the Tribal Citizens pertaining to the actions of the Election Board.

1. The Secretary, or his/her designee, will be responsible for taking the minutes during regular, Special, and Emergency Meetings of the Election Board.
2. The minutes shall reflect what was done, not what was said, at the meeting.
3. After approval of the minutes, the Secretary will keep a copy of the minutes in a binder.
4. Election Board shall allow for at least one public comment period per regularly scheduled meeting. Election Board shall allow for a reasonable amount of time for comments from the public but may limit such time for comments as necessary to conduct business.

C. Phone Polls

1. In situations where immediate emergency action prior to a regular or special meeting is required, such action can be taken by phone poll or teleconference call for the limited purpose of addressing a specific matter.
2. In such situations, the Election Board Secretary or designee must certify that more than one attempt was made to contact each Election Board member by any practical means including telephone, fax, e-mail or in person.
3. The action taken must be ratified at the next regular meeting of the Election Board, and the minutes must state the reason such emergency action was necessary.

SECTION VII. TYPES OF ELECTIONS

A. Primary

1. In the event that more than (2) candidates per office file sufficient petitions and are therefore certified as candidates for elective office in any scheduled election, a Primary Election shall be conducted to reduce the number of candidates in the General Election to two (2) candidates per office.
2. In the event that a Primary Election is required under this Section, the Primary Election shall be conducted no less than forty five (45) days prior to the General Election. Ballots for the Primary Election shall be mailed no later than seventy five (75) days prior to the General Election.
3. If a Primary Election is required under this Section, the schedule for distribution of Notice of Election and candidate filing dates shall be scheduled to coincide with the scheduled date of the Primary Election.
4. If two (2) or less candidates file sufficient petitions for an elected office, then a Primary Election shall not be required and the standard election calendar shall apply.

B. General

The General Election shall be held the last Monday in June every two (2) years for the purpose of electing the Tribal Council members whose terms are expired and the Tribal Chairperson/Vice Chairperson every four (4) years. Provided, in the event of extraordinary circumstances beyond the Election Board's control rendering the holding of the election impossible, the Election Board may postpone Election Day until such event subsides.

C. Referendum (Refer to Article XIV B Referendum in the Constitution)

1. The Tribal Council may decide by an affirmative vote of six (6) Council members to submit any proposed or any enacted statute to a vote of registered Tribal voters at a referendum election.

2. The procedure for a referendum election shall be as follows:

a. Referendum elections shall be held no sooner than forty five (45) days and no later than ninety (90) days from the date the proposed or existing statute is referred to the Election Board. The date of the referendum election shall be set by the Election Board.

b. A referendum proposal shall be enacted by the vote of a majority of those actually voting; provided that at least twenty percent (20%) of the registered voters of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians who were registered on the day it was referred by the Tribal Council to the Election Board cast ballots in said election. If less than twenty percent (20%) of the registered voters of the Tribe casts ballots in said election, the referendum shall be deemed to be defeated.

3. Petition procedure and signature verification

a. Shall be submitted on the official form approved by the Election Board.

b. All information requested on the form must be filled in completely and legibly. Incomplete or illegible information is grounds for disqualification.

c. Petitions submitted to the Election Board must be date and time stamped. A receipt reflecting the number of pages accepted must be issued to the petitioner.

d. The Election Board shall not add to or in any way alter anything contained in the Petition. Only petitions that are complete as submitted shall be deemed valid.

e. The Election Board shall review and validate all signatures on the petition. A valid signature is that of a registered voter whose signature can be determined to be the same as that appearing on official voter registration documents.

D. Initiative (Refer to Article XIV A Initiative and Referendum in the Constitution)

1. Initiative is the power of the Tribal Members to propose laws and to enact or reject them in an election. The members of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians shall have the power to adopt, by initiative, any statute, and the power to repeal or amend any statute in accordance with the provisions of this Article; provided that statutes addressing appropriations for Tribal institutions or statutes establishing the Tribal budget shall be exempt from the initiative process.

2. The procedure for initiative shall be as follows:

a. The proponents of an initiative shall submit it to the Election Board for examination as to technical sufficiency and to ensure clarity before it is circulated. The Election Board shall deliver its written comments to the proponents within thirty (30) days.

b. Initiative petitions must be signed by a number of registered voters equaling twenty percent (20%) of the registered voters who voted in the last general election. After the signatures have been verified by the Election Board, the Election Board shall schedule an election.

c. If a general election is scheduled to be held less than twelve (12) months from the date the Election Board has verified the petition, the initiative will be scheduled for a vote at that general election. If the next general election is scheduled for a time more than twelve (12) months after the verification, a special election shall be scheduled.

d. An initiative proposal shall be enacted by the vote of a majority of those actually voting; provided that at least twenty (20%) of the registered voters who are registered on the day of submission of the petition cast ballots in said special election. If less than twenty percent (20%) of the registered voters of the Tribe cast ballots in said election, the initiative shall be deemed to be defeated.

e. If an initiative is defeated in an election, the same matter cannot again be the subject of an initiative election for two (2) years.

E. Recall (Refer to Article XIII A. Recall in the Constitution)

1. The Chairperson, Vice Chairperson or Tribal Council Members may be subject to recall at any time under the following procedure:

a. A recall petition signed by a number of registered voters equaling twenty (20%) of the registered voters who voted in the last general election is presented to the Election Board. All petitions must be on forms approved by the Election Board.

b. Within ten (10) business days of receipt of the petition, the Election Board shall either certify the validity of the petition and signatures or return it to the citizen who submitted it with a written explanation of the defect.

c. A recall election shall be scheduled by the Election Board within ninety (90) days upon verification of the petition and its signatures.

d. The elected official shall be recalled upon a majority vote if at least thirty percent (30%) of the registered voters vote in the recall election.

e. To provide for continuity of governance no more than four (4) Tribal Council members shall be subject to a recall election at any one time.

2. Each elected official may be subject to no more than one (1) recall election per calendar year.
3. Petitions expire ninety (90) days from the date of issue.
  - a. Expired petitions shall be returned to the Election Board.
  - b. Petitions will be numbered and will indicate date of issue and date of expiration.

9. Ballots will not be accepted after 6:00 p.m. eastern standard time.
10. The preliminary results are posted as follows:
  - a. In one visible and accessible place designated by the Election Board within twenty four (24) hours after the closing of the polls.
  - b. Within three (3) business days on the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians website.

C. Ties

1. General Election

a. In the event that at the completion of the canvas of the General Election results the tally reveals that any candidate has received the same number of votes as received by another candidate in that contest, the Election Board will conduct a recount of the ballots cast in that contest. Should a tie exist at the completion of the recount, the Election Board will conduct a special run-off election limited to the tied candidates unless the breaking of such tie will not affect the outcome of the election. Such a run-off election shall be immediately noticed to be held not more than forty five (45) days from the date of the General Election.

b. In the event that at the completion of the special run-off election a tie still exists, the winner will be determined by flipping of a coin under the supervision of the Election Board and the Poll Sitters and Poll Watchers.

c. The same procedure will be followed for a tie in a referendum election.

2. Announcement of Results - Run-off Election

An uncertified statement shall be issued and posted to announce the election results within three (3) days following completion of the canvas of the election.

D. Recounts

1. Any contest that ends with a margin of less than one percent shall be subject to an automatic recount. A second machine shall be used for the recount. Recount of elections that end with a margin of one percent or greater shall not be subject to recount except in cases where a candidate has shown the Tribal Court credible evidence of fraud that would change the election results.

2. Any contest involving a recount for the votes cast that is margin of one percent or greater shall be done at the expense of those requesting such a recount for a non-refundable fee of $500.00, unless the outcome of the election has been changed as a result of the re-count then the $500.00 shall be refunded.

3. Any recounts or requests for recounts must occur before the certification of the election.

E. Poll Sitters

Poll sitters are person who by contractual agreement observe the activities of the election process at the polling place on Election Day. They shall not interfere in any way with the proceedings.
