TITLE XII. CORPORATIONS, BUSINESSES AND COMMERCIAL TRANSACTIONS

12.100 PREAMBLE AND GENERAL DEFINITIONS

The purpose of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians' Tribal Comprehensive Business Codes is to establish the policy which the Tribe, its entities, private businesses and individuals may use to conduct business activities within its territorial and governmental jurisdiction. The policies shall apply to each of the Codes contained in Statute, The LTBB Odawa Tribal Comprehensive Business Codes. The provisions of this Statute shall be applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.

The LTBB Tribal Court has jurisdiction to adjudicate matters arising from this Statute. The Tribe recognizes that a strong Reservation economy must include both tribal and private sector development. It is the policy of LTBB to promote both tribal and private sector development within the exterior boundaries of the Reservation and elsewhere within the jurisdiction of the Tribe for Indian and non-Indian businesses. It is the policy of the Tribe to facilitate and enhance job stability, career opportunities and use of inherent Tribal powers to create and maintain a sound business environment within the Tribe's jurisdiction. Consistent with these goals, it is the policy of the Tribe to promote the least restrictive and most cost effective business environment.

It is the policy of the Tribe that, without waiving any authority over business activities, LTBB shall neither knowingly and unnecessarily obstruct or hinder, nor unreasonably interfere with private sector businesses that operate in accordance with the provisions of this Statute and any other LTBB or applicable law.

Nothing in this Statute shall be construed as creating a claim for monetary or injunctive relief against the Tribe or its officers and employees.

It is the policy of the Tribe to allow the use of tribal land, natural and financial resources and opportunities for the promotion of economic benefits to create jobs, expand business opportunities and secure business independence in order to achieve the goals prescribed in this Statute, consistent with applicable regulations and statutes, enacted now or hereafter.

Under this Statute, the Tribe may entertain proposals from private sector business interests for privatizing Tribal Governmental activities. If approved, the Tribe will enter into a contractual agreement with such business interests for carrying out such contracted services.

The Tribe authorizes businesses operating pursuant to the Tribe's Comprehensive Business Codes to apply for grants and other programs for which the Tribe is eligible, and that the Tribe does not express an interest in applying for, and operate such programs within the Tribe's jurisdiction.

Nothing in this Code shall be construed as a waiver by the Tribe of its authority or jurisdiction over businesses operating within its jurisdiction.

As used in this Statute, unless intended otherwise by the context used, the following means:

- A. "Jurisdiction" means the jurisdiction of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, whether within or without the exterior boundaries of the Reservation, as defined in the Tribal Constitution.

No transfer shall be made to a third party unless:

1. the third party is eligible to become a qualified shareholder under the provisions of any federal, state or Tribal tax statute that the corporation has elected to be subject to and the third party shall agree in writing not to take any action to terminate the election without the approval of the remaining shareholders;
2. the transfer to the third party will not result in the imposition of the personal holding company tax or any similar Tribal, state or federal penalty tax on the corporation.

D. If a contract to sell is created under subsection (C), the shareholder shall make delivery of all the certificates for the stock so sold, duly endorsed, within 20 days of receipt of the notice of acceptance, or in the case of un-certificated securities, shall within the 20 day period deliver to the corporation the required instruction requesting that the transfer be made. E. If the offer to sell is not accepted pursuant to subsections (C) and (D), the shareholder shall be entitled to transfer to the third party offeror all (but not less than all) of the offered shares within 120 days after delivery of the shareholder's notice specified in subsection (C) in accordance with the terms specified in the shareholder's notice.

12.151 SHAREHOLDER SALE OPTION AT DEATH

A. If the articles of incorporation of a corporation formed under this Code provide that this section shall apply to the corporation, then the executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased shareholder shall, subject to any directions in the deceased shareholder's last will and testament, have the right to require the corporation to elect either to purchase or cause the purchase of all, but not less than all, of the shares of the decedent pursuant to Section 12.153(D)-(F), or to be dissolved.

B. A modification of the provisions in this section shall be valid if it is set forth or referred to in the articles of incorporation.

C. Any amendment to the articles of incorporation to provide that this section shall apply to, delete or modify the provisions of this section shall be approved by the unanimous vote of the holders of each class of shares of the corporation affected by the proposed deletion or modification, whether or not they are otherwise entitled to vote thereon; but if the corporation has no shareholders at the time of the proposed amendment, by the unanimous vote of all the subscribers of all of the incorporators, as the case may be.

D. A person exercising rights under this section shall, within six months after the death of the beneficial owner of shares, deliver a written notice to the corporation's registered office specifying the number and class of all shares beneficially owned by the deceased shareholder and stating that an offer by the corporation to purchase such shares is being solicited pursuant to this section. Within 20 days after receipt of the notice, the president of the corporation shall call a special meeting of shareholders, which shall be held not more than 40 days after the call, for the purpose of determining whether to offer to purchase the shares. Approval of an action to offer to purchase the shares shall be by affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote, excluding the shares covered by the notice. With the consent of all the shareholders entitled to vote for approval, the corporation may allocate some or all of the shares to one or more shareholders, or to other persons, but if the corporation has more than one class of shares, the remaining holders of the class of shares being offered for sale shall have first option to purchase the shares that are not purchased by the corporation in proportion to their shareholdings or such proportion as shall be agreeable to those desiring to purchase. Written notice of any offer to purchase approved by the shareholders, or that no offer to purchase was approved, shall be delivered or sent to the person exercising his or her rights under this section within 75 days after delivery of the notice soliciting the offer to purchase. Any offer to purchase shall be accompanied by copies of the corporation's end of year balance sheets, and profit and loss statements for the preceding two accounting years and any available interim balance sheet and profit and loss statement.

E. To the extent the price and other terms for purchasing shares of a transferring shareholder by the corporation or remaining shareholders are fixed or are to be determined pursuant to provisions in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws of the corporation, or by written agreement, those provisions shall be binding, except that in the event of a default in any payment due, Section 12.153(H) shall apply and the person exercising his or her rights under this section shall have the right to petition for dissolution of the corporation. Any offer to purchase shall be accepted or rejected in writing within 15 days.

F. If an offer to purchase is rejected, or if no offer to purchase is made, the person exercising rights under this section may commence an action in the Tribal Court. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. The corporation shall be made a party defendant in such action and shall, at its expense, give notice of the commencement of the action to all of its shareholders and such other persons as the court may direct. The court shall proceed to determine the fair value of the shares of the person exercising the rights under this section by considering the going concern values of the corporation, any agreement among the same or all of the shareholders fixing a price or specifying a formula for determining the value of the corporation's shares for any purpose, the recommendations of any appraiser appointed by the court, any legal constraints on the ability of the corporation to acquire the shares to be purchased, and other relevant evidence. The court shall then enter an order requiring the corporation to cause the purchase of the shares at fair value and on the other terms so determined or to give such person the right to have the corporation dissolved.

G. Upon the petition of the corporation, the court may modify its decree to change the terms of payment if it finds that the changed financial or legal ability of the corporation or other purchasers of the shares to complete the purchase justifies a modification. Any person making a payment in order to prevent or insure against any default by any purchaser shall be entitled to recover the excess payment from the defaulting person.

H. If the corporation or other purchaser fails for any reason to make any payment specified in the court decree within 30 days after the due date for such payment, the court shall, upon the petition of the person to whom the payment is due and in the absence of good cause shown by the corporation, enter a decree dissolving the corporation.

I. If the fair value of the shares as determined by the court does not materially exceed the last offer made by the corporation prior to the commencement of an action brought pursuant to subsection (F) and the court finds that the failure of the person exercising rights under this section to accept the corporation's last offer was arbitrary, baseless, or not otherwise in good faith, the court may assess all or a portion of the costs and expenses of the action against such person.

J. If the fair value of the shares as determined by the court materially exceeds the amount of the last offer made by the corporation prior to the time a petition was filed pursuant to subsection (F) and the court finds that the corporation's last offer was arbitrary, baseless, or was otherwise not made in good faith, the court may assess all or a portion of the costs and expenses of the action against the corporation.

K. Expenses assessable under subsections (I) and (J) shall include reasonable compensation for and reasonable expenses of any appraisers appointed by the court, and the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party.

L. Except as provided in subsections (I) and (J), the legal costs of an action filed pursuant to subsection (F) shall be assessed on an equal basis between the corporation and any party exercising rights under this section, and all other fees and expenses shall be borne by the party incurring the fees and expenses.

M. Any shareholder may waive his or her and his or her estate's and heirs' rights under this section by a signed writing.

N. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any other agreement not prohibited by law that provides for the purchase of shares of the corporation, nor shall it prevent a shareholder from enforcing any other remedy he or she may have.

12.152 ACTIONS BY SHAREHOLDERS OF CLOSE CORPORATIONS

A. Any shareholder of record, the beneficial owner of share held by a nominee, or the holder of voting trust certificates of a corporation formed under this Code may file a petition in the Tribal Court for relief on the grounds that:

B. The directors or those in control of the corporation have or will have conducted the business and affairs of the corporation in a manner which is not in good faith and which is unfair or oppressive as to the petitioner. Such conduct shall include, but shall not be limited to, unfairly depriving the shareholder of the benefit of his or her investment in preference to other shareholders by failing to pay dividends that in good faith ought to be paid, or using the payment of wages as an unfair device to divert income from the petitioner; or

C. Conditions exist that would be grounds for judicial dissolution of the corporation under Section 12.188.

D. In determining whether one or more of the conditions specified in subsection (A) above exist, the court shall give due consideration to the strict fiduciary duty that shareholders of corporations formed under this Code owe to one another. Such fiduciary duty shall include good faith, fairness and loyalty.

E. The jurisdiction of the Tribal Court shall be plenary and exclusive. If the Tribal Court finds that one or more of the conditions specified in subsection (A) exist, it shall grant such relief as in its discretion it deems appropriate, including, without limitation, orders granting one or more of the following types of relief:

1. Canceling, altering or enjoining any resolution or other act of the corporation;
2. Directing or prohibiting any act of the corporation or of shareholders, directors, officers, or other persons party to the action;
3. Canceling or altering any provision contained in the articles of incorporation or by-laws of the corporation;
4. Removing from office any director or officer, or ordering that a person be appointed a director or officer;

7. Appointing a provisional director who shall have all the rights, powers, and duties of a duly elected director and shall serve for the term and under conditions established by the Tribal Court;
8. Ordering the payment of dividends;
9. If the Tribal Court finds the relief specified in paragraphs (1) through (8) is or would be inadequate or inappropriate, ordering that the corporation is liquidated and dissolved unless either the corporation or one or more of the remaining shareholders has purchased all of the shares of another shareholder at their fair value by a designated date, with the fair value and terms of the purchase to be determined as provided by Section 12.154(E). In the event the share purchase is not consummated and the corporation is dissolved and liquidated, any shareholder whose shares were to be purchased shall have the same rights and priorities in the assets of the corporation as would have been the case had no purchase been ordered by the Tribal Court.

10. Awarding damages to any aggrieved party in addition to or in lieu of any other relief granted.

11. In determining whether to enter a judgment under paragraph (9), the Tribal Court shall take into consideration the financial condition of the corporation but shall not refuse to order liquidation solely on the grounds that the corporation has earned surplus or current operating profits.

F. If the Tribal Court determines that any party to a proceeding brought under this section has acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may award reasonable expenses, including attorneys, fees and the costs of any appraisers of other experts, to one or more of the other parties.

G. If the Tribal Court orders relief pursuant to subsection (E)(9), the court shall:

1. Proceed to determine the fair value of the shares to be purchased, considering the going concern values of the corporation, any agreement among the same or all of the shareholders fixing a price or specifying a formula for determining the value of the corporation's shares for any purpose, the recommendations of any appraiser appointed by the Tribal Court, any legal constraints on the ability of the corporation to acquire the shares to be purchased, and other relevant evidence.

2. Enter a decree specifying the identity of the purchaser and the terms of the purchase found to be proper under the circumstances, including such provisions as are deemed proper concerning payment of the purchase price in two or more installments, payment of interest on the installments, subordination of the obligation to the rights of other creditors of the corporation, security for the deferred purchase price, and a covenant not to compete or other restriction on the selling shareholder.

3. Order that the selling shareholder shall, concurrently with the payment of the purchase price, or in the event of an installment purchase concurrently with the payment of the initial payment called for in the order make delivery of all his or her shares and from that date have no rights or claims against the corporation or its directors, officers, or shareholders by reason of his or her having been a director, officer, or shareholder of the corporation, except the right to receive the unpaid balance of the amount awarded under this section and any amounts due under any agreement with the corporation for the remaining shareholders that are not terminated by the court's order.

4. Order that if the purchase is not completed in accordance with the court's decree, the corporation shall be liquidated.

H. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (G), the rights of a shareholder to file a proceeding under this section are in addition to and not in lieu of any other rights or remedies the shareholder may have.

I. No shareholder shall be eligible to file an action under this section until he or she shall have exhausted all non-judicial remedies for resolution of the issues in dispute.

D. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action unless:

12.164 GENERAL STANDARDS FOR DIRECTORS

A. A director shall discharge his or her duties as a director, including duties as a member of a committee:

1. in good faith;
2. with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
3. in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

B. In discharging his or her duties a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

1. one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
2. legal counsel, public accountants, professionals or other experts the director deems to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; or
3. a committee of the board of directors of which he or she is not a member if the director believes the committee merits confidence.

C. A director is not acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (B) unwarranted.

12.165 DIRECTOR CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A. A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. Any conflict of interest transaction is voidable by the corporation because of the director's interest in the transaction unless any one of the following is true:

- 1. the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and the board of directors or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction;
- 2. the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or
- 3. the transaction was fair to the corporation.

B. For the purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in the transaction if:

- 1. another entity in which he or she has a material financial interest or in which he or she is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or
- 2. another entity of which he or she is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

C. For the purposes of subsection (A)(1), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (A)(1) if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved or ratified as provided in that subsection.

D. For the purposes of subsection (A)(2), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved or ratified if it receives the vote of a majority of the shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. Shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (B)(1), may not be counted in a vote of shareholders to determine whether to authorize, approve or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection (A)(2). The vote of those shares, however, is counted in determining whether a transaction is approved under other sections of this Code. A majority of shares, whether or not present, that are entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

12.225 QUORUM AND VOTING

A. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number, a quorum of a board of directors consists of a majority of the number of directors.

B. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to consist of no less than one-third of the number of directors.

C. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

D. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless:

1. he or she objects at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his or her arrival) to holding it or transacting business at the meeting;

2. his or her dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or

12.226 GENERAL STANDARDS FOR DIRECTORS

A. A director shall discharge his or her duties as a director, including duties as a member of a committee:

1. in good faith;

2. with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

3. in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

B. In discharging his or her duties a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

1. one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
2. legal counsel, public accountants, professionals or other experts the director deems to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; or
3. a committee of the board of directors of which he or she is not a member, as to matters within its jurisdiction, if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

C. A director is not acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (B) unwarranted.

D. A director shall not be deemed to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of such property, and notwithstanding that the corporation may be a trustee with respect to the property.

E. A director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, if he or she performed the duties of office in compliance with this section.

12.227 DIRECTOR CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A. A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable or the basis for imposing liability on the director if the transaction was fair at the time it was entered into or is approved as provided in subsections (B) or (C).

B. A transaction in which a director of a Public Benefit Corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved:

- 1. in advance by the vote of the board of directors or a committee of the board if:
 - a. the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest are disclosed or known to the board or committee of the board; and
 - b. the directors approving the transaction in good faith reasonably believe that the transaction is fair to the corporation; or
- 2. before or after it is consummated, by obtaining approval of the:
 - a. Director of Commerce; or
 - b. Tribal Court in an action of which the Director of Commerce is given notice.

C. A transaction in which a director of a Mutual Benefit Corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved if the following apply:

- 1. the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board and the board or committee of the board authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or
- 2. the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the members and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

D. For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction if:

1. another entity in which he or she has a material financial interest or in which he or she is a general partner is a party to the transaction, or
2. another entity of which he or she is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

E. For purposes of subsections (B) and (C), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of or a vote cast by a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsections (B) and (C) if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in subsections (B) or (C).

F. For purposes of subsection (C)(2), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved or ratified if it receives the vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be counted under this subsection. Votes cast by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and votes cast by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (D)(1), may not be counted in a vote of members to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection (C)(2). The vote of these members, however, is counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this Code. For the purpose of taking action under this section, a quorum constitutes a majority of the voting members entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction, whether or not present.

G. The articles, bylaws, or a resolution of the board may impose additional requirements on conflict of interest transactions.

B. A director held liable for an unlawful payment under subsection (A) is entitled to contribution:

- 1. from every other director who voted for or assented to the payment without complying with the applicable standards of conduct described in section 12.228; and

B. No indemnification shall be made pursuant to this section in respect of any proceeding in which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation.

C. B. The undertaking required by subsection (A)(2) must be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

C. Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section shall be made in the manner specified in Section 12.238.
